

Your Ninth Place in the National BB Gun Shoot was the Result of Many Long, Dedicated Hours!

As Norton head coach Cameron Archer watches, Gabriel Bird takes aim at the target from the kneeling position where he fired an 89. His best shooting position was prone where he recorded an outstanding 99 to tie for second overall in the shoot!

Norton's Erin Archer shot a 93 from the sitting position as her father and head coach Cameron Archer looked down range.

The Blue Jays' James Berry squeezed off another round from the kneeling position under the watchful eye of Norton head coach Cameron Archer. James shot a 94 from that position.

Norton alternate Trenton Sprague scored a 96 from the prone position. Checking the target with his binoculars was head coach Cameron Archer.

Blue Jay Zachary Bird pulls the trigger from the sitting position as head coach Cameron Archer looks on. Zachary shot a 94 from that position.
