Changes Lives of the Repentant

A Biblical understanding of the results of preaching and teaching God's Word births forth true belief. Christians devoted to the preaching and teaching of God's Word know that "All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness." (2 Timothy 3:16) "God's Word is like fire... and like a hammer that breaks a rock in pieces." (Jeremiah 23: 29) Faith comes by people hearing the message of God's Word about Christ. (Romans 10: 17) Preachers and teachers devoted to their call take every opportunity available to get the Word of God out of the church walls so people can be reached for the Lord, thus being enabled to fulfill their part of the "Great Commission."

The Christian Index ran the story that so powerfully shows the effectiveness of God's Word: A man committed to getting the Word of God out into the fields of the world was handing out Christian tracts. He handed one to a person who at first refused to receive it saying, "I do not want to be bothered with evangelistic nonsense." After being pressed, the man took the Gospel tract saying, "I will burn it when I get home," and so he did. However, as the tract was burning, his eyes fell upon the written Word, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but incorruptible, by the Word (λόγος logos) of God, which liveth and abideth forever." (1 Peter 1:23 KJ)

In his own ledger this man who burned the tract wrote, "I could not rid myself of these words." Wherever he was, that passage of Scripture haunted him and made him miserable. When he could stand it no longer he went to a Christian center, "The Mission Hall." There he was told about Jesus Christ - then and there he discovered salvation, pardon and peace. (This truths found in this story came from reading "Power of the Word" - Knight's Book of 4,000 Illustrations. The man in this true story was not mentioned because he did not want attention brought to himself.)

Not everyone is called to pass out tracts that teach the Word of God. However, everyone is called to do some type of participation, through prayer or provision.
