THANK YOU

The family of Bill Goscha would like to thank everyone for the kindness shown during the time before and after his passing. The visits, phone calls, food, flowers, the many cards and memorials were greatly appreciated. A special thanks to the doctors in Norton and Kearney for their special care during his illness. The Hospice Services for their wonderful care during the last few weeks of his life. To Father Vincent for the wonderful services and the Altar Society for the delicious meal. We are truly blessed to have such wonderful family and friends.
