

Jennifer Miller, in her 1972 white Camero RS, lines up to race her father-in-law, Mick Miller, in his red 1969 Chevelle. This was a little friendly family competition between the two at this year's drag races that took place at the Norton Airport after the Eighth Annual Norton Classic Cruisers Car Show. Jennifer won every race she ran for the day. This is the second year she has beat her father-in-law in racing.

Norton Library

This week at the Norton Public Library, there will be only one special program: Randy's Music Jam, a fun and interactive music show for the entire family. Randy leads the audience in fun familiar songs and has the audience singing along with his original songs. Kids always enjoy jamming with Randy on stage with the inflatable instruments and rhythm instruments. Many of the songs will have the entire audience up out of their seats dancing to the music. This program will be held July 14 in the Library Community Room at 10:30 a.m. This program is brought to you by the Norton Lions Club, Norton Public Library, and Northwest Kansas Library System.
