LYLE NEWS

Kathy Van Meter and Lloyd Frandsen attended the funeral of Stuart Euhus at St John's Lutheran Church in Oberlin on Tuesday. After celebrating her birthday on Saturday, they came to the community picnic at the Powell picnic grounds on Sunday and then went to Hoxie for the open house and supper in honor of the 90th birthday of her cousin, Ina Miller.

What a hailstorm and rain we had Tuesday evening! I don't know how far north it started, but it made a path through McCook to Norcat and on south. There was 1.5 inches of rain with the hail and another 1.1 inch by Wednesday morning. The town lost several windows and there was other damage. Probably roofs and crops sustained the most damage.

Larry Sumner took his mother, Joyce, Margaret Magers and Veda Wood to Fred Helm's funeral at Indianola, Neb. on Saturday. Afterward, they met at the parish hall for lunch and visiting. It is always good to see the family, but hate for it to be on such a sad occasion.

June Jolly attended the funeral for Fred Helm. On Saturday she played in the pitch tournament at the Old Settlers Picnic in Indianola. On Sunday she and Linda and Dennis McFarland had dinner with Dean and Rhonda Jolly.

Carol Jolly received word that his friend Ron Weiss has lost a son.

The Powell picnic grounds looked prettier than I ever remember. Allen Powell mowed it for the different festivities that have taken place there recently. The picnickers on Sunday were Margaret Magers, Kathy Van Meter and Lloyd Frandsen, Kathy's son and grandson, Tim and Clinton

Nejdl and friend, Danny Weyen, James and Charlotte Plotts, Wayne Filly, Joyce and Virgil Price, Carol and John Moye, Sandy and Larry McNames, Cathy, Gary and Keith Anthony, Allen Powell and Veda Wood. There was water in the creek and several were adventurous enough to brave the goat swing. This old lady declined, and didn't even go down the slide this time. Now I almost wish I had.

Larry and Sandy McNames made a quick trip to Taos, N.M., to see their daughter, who was sworn in as a district judge.

Aubrey got our attention in a hurry when she said, "There's a bee in the refrigerator." When we looked, it was an egg with a printed "B" so I would remember it was boiled. Whew!
