The Norton County Rotary BB Gun Team started the 2012 season with a runner-up finish in the Logan County 4-H Regional BB Gun Shoot held Saturday, Feb. 25 in Oakley.

The Phillips/Rooks County team won the championship with a total score of 1465 by their top four shooters in the prone, standing, sitting and kneeling positions.

Norton had a total score of 1409 and Logan County was third with a 1255.

Norton’s top shooter was Erin Archer with a 93 in prone, 90 in standing, 94 in sitting, 92 in kneeling for a 369.

She was followed by James Berry with a 92 in prone, 86 in standing, 96 in sitting, 89 in kneeling for a 363.

Next most accurate shooter for Norton was Stacie Elliott with an 89 in prone, 79 in standing, 88 in sitting, 91 in kneeling for a 347.

Fourth best marksman for Norton was Colton Mulder with a 78 in prone, 77 in standing, 88 in sitting, 87 in kneeling for a 330.

Eight shooters entered the competition for Norton and seven qualified for the State 4-H BB Gun Shoot on April 14 in Alma.

The other Norton state qualifiers and their scores were: Dylan Goss, 81 prone, 77 standing, 69 sitting, 81 kneeling, 308; total; Nick Davis, 88 prone, 55 standing, 83 sitting, 81 kneeling, 307 total; Miles Harrington, 83 prone, 66 standing, 77 sitting, 74 kneeling, 300 total.

Riley Goss also competed for Norton. His scores were: 81 prone, 59 standing, 64 sitting, 68 kneeling, 272 total.

At least a 300 total score was required to qualify for the State 4-H Shoot but there is no shooting criteria needed to qualify for the Kansas State Rifle Association State Shoot which will be held March 17 in Alma.

There is no written test of gun marksmanship and safety given for the 4-H shoots whereas that is part of the Rifle Association State Shoot.

Erin Archer had the third best shooting score on Saturday. Alex Randall and Brianna Shaw, both from Phillips/

Rooks, tied for first with 371s with Randall winning on a tiebreaker.

James Berry had the sixth highest total score individually and was edged for fifth on a tiebreaker.

“We shot really well; I was pleased with the results,” said Norton head BB gun coach Cameron Archer.

“We qualified seven shooters for the state 4-H shoot and that was what I was after.

“We are getting better and that is important for the upcoming shoots.”

Former Blue Jay named All American
