

Special Service on Sunday at the Cornerstone Church

Cornerstone Church at 315 W. Lincoln, Norton is excited to announce a special service with Rev. David and Donna Haag. The Haags are veteran missionaries in South Africa and they have served there over 50 years. David's parents, Paul and Helen Haag, founded the South African Evangelistic Mission in the early fifties. Since their deaths David has been the President of the S.A.E.M. This organization has grown to about 150 churches which are located all over South Africa. Their headquarters is in Durban where they also direct a correspondence Bible school to hundreds. The Haags are both natives of the United States. Donna was born and raised in North Dakota and David in Pennsylvania.

The Cornerstone Church, formerly Crossroads, has helped support the Haags for more than 50 years and is so pleased to have them here on Sunday night, December 9 at 6:00 p.m. They will be sharing reports of their work. They travel from one end of South Africa to the other holding seminars, evangelistic meetings, women's conferences and Pastor training sessions. They are a dynamic couple who are raising up a strong witness for Christ in South Africa.

Following their service there will be a fellowship time with sandwiches and ice cream and coffee.

Pastor James Kallenburg extends an invitation to everyone to join us in welcoming the Haags to Norton.
