TELEGRAM EXTRA

Vol. 108. No. 88 THE NORTON $1 I ELEGRAM

ESTATI

By Cynthia Haynes

By Cynthia Haynes cynthia.haynes@mkansas.com Norton County's insurance bill will be going up in 2014 but partially be-cause the county decided it needs to increase its coverage. Larry Sharp with the Kansas County Association Multiline Insurance Pool, commonly called K-Comp. presented commonly called K-Camp, presented the commissioners with their bill and talked to them about their coverage which includes liability, casualty and Prospective hunters completed their Hunter Education class on Saturday at the Blackpowder Gun Range. (Pictured left to right) Dakota Bliss looks on as his father Dan Bliss, WaKeeney, assists Larry Ran-

Friday Learning the basics... November 1, 2013

Almena hosts craft fair on Saturday

The 2013 Fall Craft /Vendor Fair will be held in Almena on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at the Almena Community Building. A lunch stand will be available.

4-H achievement night on Sunday

The Norton County 4-H Achievemen Ine Norton County 4-H Achrevement Night is Sunday, Nov. 3 at the 4-H Building, 126 E. Park Street. The potluck meal begins at 6 p.m. and the program at 6:45 p.m. Please RSVP by calling (785-) 877-5755 or email at casander@ksu.edu.

Jugglers coming to town Sunday

The Norton County Arts Council will host Something Ridiculous Jugglers on Sunday, Nov. 3 at 4 p.m. The event will be held at the Norton East Campus

Extension office to hold program property damage. The county had 10 property claims this year and the insurance company has paid on eight of those, Mr. Sharp So what's buggin' you this year? Join Twin Creeks Extension District Agriculture and Natural Resources Agent, Keith VanSkike for this informative program. Tuesday, Nov. 5, said "It was a tough year for Norton County," Mr. Sharp said, which pushed Agent, Keith VanSkike for this informative program. Tuesday, Nov. 5, 7 p.m., Norton County 4-H Building. RSVP to Twin Creeks Extension Office in Norton (785) 877-5755. Ten participants are needed to hold this program. the county's loss ratio up. "But," he added. "That's what you have insurance for Markets ..$7.27 ..$3.95 .$12.07 ..$4.20 Milo. . . . Soybeans.

Weather

Saturday - Clear with a high of 59. Satur day Night - Clear with a low of 37. Sunday - Clear with a high of 70. Sunday Night -Clear with a low of 48. Monday - Mostly cloudy with a high of 59. Monday Night - Overcast with a low of 34. Tuesday - Over cast with a chance of rain and a high of 52

Prayer

Dearest heavenly Father, help us to remember that others may be looking to us as models of faith. Guide us to be ever mindful of our actions that we may be examples of what is good. Amen

Nex-Tech, Lenora, Kan., has named Jimmy Todd, pictured at left, as the CEO/General Manager to replace Lar-ry Sevier, at right, upon his retirement, March 1, 2014. Sevier, who has been with the company for 28 years, will edu his distinguished career after 48 years in the iordury. Todd the current CEO in the industry. Todd, the current CEO tions spans over 25 years starting with at Mutual Telephone Company (MTC), active duty service in the Navy as a

"We haven't really had any liability problems here in Norton County for some time," Mr. Sharp said. For 2014, the county's bill will be about $48,000. That is up from $39,000 last year but still less than the $50,000 bill the year before. The county had all its property ap-praised last year, County Clerk Robert Wyatt said, and the commissioners de-cided that they were underinsured so they raised the amount and also added county the sheriff's office answered two domestic violence calls at one resi-dence. Officers arrested an occupant the first time and got sued for false ar-rest and didn't arrest on the second call and got sued for failure to act. The insurance company, he said, looks at claims and sorts them into

Norton County insurance bill to increase

three categories

173 percent of what the county paid in 173 percent of what the county paid in in premiums in 2013, Mr. Sharp said but the company uses a four-year aver-age in figuring premiums. This is the first year that the company has paid out more in property claims than in liability claims for its covered counties, Mr. Sharp said. The biggest problem for liability, he noted, is law enforcement.

nosing," he noted. They are always getting sued for failure to act, illegal search and seizure and false arrests. He noted that in one county the sheriff's office answered two domestic violence calls at one resinoted, is law enforcement. "Sheriffs' departments can't win for sing," he noted.

the old doctors' building, which now three categories. On property claims, such as Norton County had, the company looks at the accidents and asks if they could have been avoided. Causualty claims are disregarded, he said, because you can't do anything about storms, hail or tornadoes. Liability claims are looked at most carefully since they are usually one of the binget expresse. ses the Colby Comm inity College

-Telegram photo by Mike Stephen:

dall, a hunter education instructor from Phillipsburg, and Kole Breth shoots clay pigeons with a shotgun.

the biggest expense. "We haven't really had any liability nouses the Coby Community College nurses program. Mr. Sharp said that the county needs to fill out a property list so that it isn't paying for property (such as road grad-ers) that it no longer has. He said that the county clerk usually gets to do that job

In other business, the commission ers Signed checks on Monday because Iuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Heard from Treasurer Cynthia Linner that the county has received $33,741 in sales tax for October. That is up from $28,198 for last month and $32,321 for this time last year, she said. "(It's) looking good right now," Mrs. Linner said.

specialist in communication electron-ics, and continuing in the Army Na-tional Guard. After military service, he worked at Pacific Bell in San Jose, Calif., and Qwest/US West in Portland, Ore., managing field and network op-erations. In 2004, Jimmy was named President/General Manager for Mal-beur Bell an independent telephone Board. In 2011, he was appointed by Kansas Governor Sam Brownback to represent rural independent telcos on heur Bell, an independent telephone company under Qwest. In 2008; he bee the President & General Manager the Kansas NG911 Coordinating Council. Jimmy has lobbied at the State and Federal level on behalf of independent companies and is involved with several national industry associations. of MTC of MTC. Jimmy has been involved in the for-mation of the Kansas Fiber Network (KFN) and is the current KFN Board Chairman. He serves on the NTCA The

Don't forget to reset your clocks

If you think it's getting dark early this week, just wait until Monday. Daylight Saving Time ends Sunday, and with the return to Standard Time, sunset will be an hour earlier next week, about 5:36 p.m. Monday in Oberlin. While the "official" time change is at 2 p.m., few of us will be up to set our clocks back an hour then. Most people will change their clocks before going to bed, or in the morning. Just don't forget, or you're going to be late for some-bing Sunday morning. thing Sunday morning

The days will keep getting shorter for another few weeks, until the shortest day of the year on Saturday, Dec. 21, the winter solstice, when the sun will set here at 5:21 p.m.

Feel like you are "Missing" out on local community news?

Let us keep you informed with all the latest news in our Tuesday and Friday editions of

THE NORTON (GR)

215 South Kansas Avenue. Norton, Kansas • Phone 785-877-3361 Phone 785-877-3361; Fax: 785-877-3732 e-mail: nortontelegram@nwkansas.com

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

NORTON, PHILLIPS, GRAHAM, DECATUR AND FURNAS COUNTIES: 1 Year-$60.00; 6 Months-$34.00; 3 Months-$20.00 Elsewhere in Kansas and Nebraska: 1 Year-$70.00; 6 Months-$39.00 Elsewhere in U.S.: 1 Year-$76.00; 6 Months-$44.00

