The Norton Community High School boys basketball team proved that they were better than their No.8 seeding in the annual Mid-Continent League Tournament, which concluded on Saturday in Gross Memorial Coliseum in Hays.

After losing in the first round to No.1 seed Plainville, the Blue Jays battled from behind on Thursday to defeat No.4 Stockton 36-34 before once again coming from behind on Saturday to defeat No.6 seed Ellis 49-44 and place fifth in the tournament.

Ellis turned the ball over and Schrum drove down court for a layup at the buzzer to make the final 49-44!

"What a great effort by these young men!" said Norton head coach Doug Reusink. "We were down eight points at the half but just kept battling. We had an injury and some foul problems but we had boys step in and play well and get the job done."

"We struggled against their press in the first half but really did a nice job against it down the stretch along with a consistent defensive effort that got us the win."

"Hopefully, we will build on this momentum because we have two tough games next week with Plainville and Phillipsburg."

Blue Jay victory over Stockton Tigers advances Norton

By DICK BOYD

The No.8 seeded Norton Community High School boys basketball team proved that they're better than the lowest seed in the Mid-Continent League Tournament on Thursday with a hard-fought 36-34 victory over No.4 seed Stockton on the Tigers' home court!

The game was close throughout with Norton leading 10-6 after the first quarter, Stockton on top slightly at 14-12 at intermission and the Tigers still leading 26-23 after three periods.

Norton's Tanner Furbush, who had hit just two field goals and one free throw in the first three quarters, started the final period with a big basket that matched a Stockton field goal. Stockton added a free throw but Furbush responded with another basket to cut the Tiger lead to 29-27.

A Stockton free throw with 4:27 left, put the Tigers on top 30-27. Stockton held off the Blue Jays with another basket to make it 32-27. Furbush got inside for a basket and Quinton Porter buried a basket from beyond the arc that tied the score at 32-all with 2:53 left.

After a furious minute and a half when neither team scored, Porter came through again. This time it was a two-point basket and Norton led 34-32. As the scoreboard clock ticked down, Drew Schrum was fouled. Unusual for Drew, he had not yet scored in the game. This was his final chance with 6.9 seconds left. He came through as he hit nothing but net on both charities to increase the Norton lead to 36-32.

The game wasn't over yet, however. A Stockton player was fouled on a three-point shot so the official awarded him three free shots. He hit the first charities but missed the third intentionally, hoping his team could get a rebound shot for a tie and overtime but it was unsuccessful and the Blue Jays were the 36-34 winners!

"This was a great win and one we really needed," said Norton head coach Doug Reusink. "It was another good defensive effort by our young men which has been what we have done consistently this season and need to continue.

"The difference today is we did things we needed to do down the stretch offensively to win. We had boys step up and make shots and free throws late. It was nice to see them step up under pressure to get the win. Hopefully, we can build on this."

Tanner Furbush was leading scorer for Norton with 5 of 10 field goals for 50 percent and 1 of 2 from the line for 11 points. Quinton Porter ended with 9 points on 1 very important three-point basket on 4 tries, 2 of 6 from two-point land for 33 percent and 2 of 2 free throws.
