The Norton Community High School girls basketball team did their best on Thursday night in the Stull Gym but were outclassed by a more athletic team when they lost 49-32 to the visiting Phillipsburg Lady Panthers.

Norton was outscored 13-8 in the first quarter and trailed 25-12 at intermission. A 14-7 third period in Phillipsburg's favor extended their lead to 39-19. Norton did outscore the visitors 13-10 in the final stanza but it made no difference in the final outcome.

"We had trouble shooting the ball and our defense was lacking at times," said Norton head coach George Rossi. "We had 29 fouls and they had only 18 so we sent them to the line a lot. "We didn't quit; we played hard but struggled shooting. Defensively, we did a better job of blocking out in the second half. "Our bench played well. We have a lot of sophomores and freshmen fighting for spots and that will help in the future. "It will be fun to play more at home in the coming weeks."

Leading scorer for Norton was Katie Bohl with 10 points on 5 of 13 from the field for 38 percent. Mattison Dusin led Phillipsburg with 16 points and Katelyn Swanson added 10. As a team, the Lady Jays hit 1 of 6 from beyond the arc for 17 percent, 11 of 40 two-point tries for 28 percent and 12 of 46 overall for 26 percent. The Lady Panthers hit 1 of 7 trey tries for 14 percent, 14 of 34 two-point attempts for 41 percent and 15 of 41 overall for 37 percent.

From the free throw line, Norton was 7 of 14 for 50 percent but the Lady Panthers shot 34 charities and hit 18 for 53 percent accuracy. Norton grabbed 6 offensive and 19 defensive rebounds for 25 total. Phillipsburg pulled down 10 offensive and 24 defensive boards for 34 total. Katie Bohl was leading rebounder for the Lady Jays with 6, followed by Caitlyn Cox, 5; Katelyn Engelbert, 4; Hanna Brooks, 3; Bailey Ambrosier, Miah Melvin, 2 each; Darcy Bainter, Johnnye Ruder, Casey Ambrosier, 1 each.
