Make Church a Part of Your Life

WEEKLY SERMONETTE

"Let Us Rejoice!"

By Pastor Rick Rostek, Immanuel Lutheran Church

"This is the day the Lord has made; Let us rejoice and be glad in it!" (Psalm 118:24). This is a familiar verse to many. For the Psalmist, it is an expression of confidence that God is author of the days, and that the Psalmist is one of God's creations. This is also a verse that might be on our lips at the beginning of the day as we anticipate the good things God has in store for us.

However, Psalm 118:24 may not have been the verse that immediately came to Mary Magdalene's mind when she awoke on that first Sunday after Jesus was crucified. Her teacher, her friend, her Savior was dead. Perhaps Psalm 130:1 was more on her mind: "Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord!"

Isn't it true, though, that the days don't always go the way we think they will? The day that starts off well can go haywire in a hurry. And a day that begins in sadness can sometimes end in joy, as that Sunday would for Mary.

Mary Magdalene went to the tomb that day only to find the stone rolled away and Jesus' body not in the tomb (John 20:1). Soon enough, through her tears, the very One they crucified on Friday would walk up to her. "Mary," Jesus would speak. And as He called her by name, she would come to realize the wonderful truth: Jesus was risen from the dead!

The Resurrection showed Jesus' victory over sin, death, and the devil. The Resurrection also means that we can be glad in every day, regardless of what the day brings. By faith in the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus, we know that our sins are forgiven and that we are counted among those who have everlasting life in Jesus' name. This is the power and glory of the Resurrection!

Whether we arise proclaiming the day that "the Lord has made," or crying out from "the depths", we can trust that the day is already won for the sake of Jesus Christ. Nothing in this world can overcome His victory on the cross and from the empty tomb! Let us rejoice in that!

It's Time to Redecorate

With time, money and effort, we can change our surroundings... color swatches, wallpaper samples and a marathon of television "instruction" can certainly be exhilarating. But what is the answer to happiness when the "new" becomes boring once more? Perhaps we need spiritual "adrenaline"? When you give your life to God, your spirit will be satisfied, full and alive. Worship this week and learn about the spirit of newness that never gets old.
