an extra $1.79 on 160 acres dry crop land; $2.98 for 160 acres irrigated land; and $.32 on 160 acres grass land.

"With these new figures, I feel like the increase in taxes would be doable," Bruce Feikert, board member, said.

"The people will make the final decision (at the November election)," said Dr. Mary Beth Miller, board member.

Mr. Schiltz will contact Greg Vahrenburg with PiperJaffray, a bond company, so he can put together a resolution calling for a bond election.

More information concerning the bond election and what it will cost taxpayers will be available in the near future.
