Viaero Wireless recently put up a transmitting tower south of the county shop in St. Francis. Melissa Workman has established Workman Wireless at 707 S. Benton, located between Hilltop Grocery Store and Poling Chiropractic.

Mrs. Workman will be the Viaero authorized dealer, selling cell phones and accessories.

"I am excited to have my own business," she said, noting that she recently took training to better serve her customer's wireless needs.

ting up a tower in Goodland as well as at the Windmill Ranch east of Haigler.

The main goal, she said, is to have better service for rural areas.

Mrs. Workman, one of the first sales people in Kansas, said the company will be offering "buy outs" to customers so they can afford to change cell companies. People can catcher her at the office Mondays through Fridays between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. She will also be open the first Saturday of each month from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Open house

Mrs. Workman is open for business, but is planning a grand opening on Nov. 14. She welcomes people to come in and see how she can help them with their cell phone needs.

Mrs. Wrokman and her husband Beau, who works for Theron Culwell, have a 4-year-old daughter, Bailey. Melissa is the daughter of Bob and Connie Holzwarth, St. Francis.
