Haigler News

By Floy Fisher

A note from Calvin Freehling reports that he had radioactive iodine injected into his blood last Thursday for a stress test to get ready for hernia surgery. That surgery is now on hold as they discovered he has had a heart attack. He goes in to Brian Heart Hospital in Lincoln on April 13 for a heart cath and possibly a stint or balloon job. Charlie and Myrna Mulligan spent a day in Denver last week on business and then went on to Estes Park. While in Estes, they enjoyed celebrating their 41st anniversary on April 1. They returned home on Saturday night. Heather, Logan and Noel Klein and Carol Flaming, all of Yuma, visited Laura Pearl Wall on Friday. They enjoyed eating dinner at the Haigler Cafe and then the boys shot their new toy guns in Laura Pearl's yard for a while. Carol is having trouble with her back so they had to leave early to get back to Yuma for a doctor's appointment. MerryLu and Bob Simmons visited Laura Pearl Wall on Sunday afternoon. Laura Pearl Wall visited Carmen Murray at her home in Laird for a few minutes on Sunday afternoon. Sherri Morabito, of Burlington, Colo., arrived at the home of her parents, Dale and Dode Faylor, on Friday afternoon, April 1. After attending church on Sunday, Sherri took her parents to dinner in Wray and then she returned to her home. Monday morning, April 4, at 9 a.m. Dwight Faylor called his parents, Dale and Dode Faylor, to tell them they had a new great granddaughter, born that morning to Nikki and Kelley Faylor. Kelsey Shay weighed in at 7 pounds and 2 ounces and was 20 1/2 inches long. Kelsey has a brother, Kelton Lane to welcome her home. Kelsey's grandmother, Kim Faylor, went to spend a week with the family.

Betty Myer returned home Monday afternoon for further recuperation from a knee replacement surgery performed last Wednesday and is doing well. The following item was inadvertently omitted from last week's news: On Saturday, the 26th of March, Yvonne Clemans and foster son, Anthony, Sherri Morabito and Caroline Hudon came to the Faylor ranch for the day. Sharna Richardson came down from Wray Thursday morning, picked up her mother, Floy Fisher, and went on to St. Francis to do some shopping at the thrift store, etc. Arriving back in Haigler at about noon, Sharna stayed to eat dinner with Floy before returning back to Wray.
