Regional music competition held

Four soloists came home from the 1-2-3-4A Regional Music Festival with top ratings and have qualified to go to State Music Festival. The regional festival was held in Oberlin on Saturday, April 2.

Earning I ratings were Sarah Whitmore, flute; Logan Whitmore, trumpet; Jacquelyn Ketzner, vocal, and Stephanie Perry, vocal.

Solists and ensembles receiving II ratings were vocal solos by Robbie Herman, Brandon Keeker, Fabienne Baudet, Tilyn Bell, Trista Orth, Christina Schoenrogge, Taylor Archibald, Laura Brunk, Lane Hoffman and Bailey Merklin; Girl's Vocal Trio I, (Stephanie Perry, Jacquelyn Ketzner, Fabienne Baudet); and Girl's Vocal Trio 2 (Tilyn Bell, Trista Orth, Ally Northrup). Also performing at the festival was the Girl's Vocal Ensemble 3 (Taylor Archibald, Laura Brunk, Krissy Harris, Sarah Whitmore, Bailey Merklin).

The 2A State Music Festival is scheduled for Saturday, April 30, in Salina. The four-week interval between regional and state gives the students time to implement the suggestions for improvement that were made by the judges on Saturday.

"I was pleased with the performances given by these students," said Debbie Fiala, band and vocal instructor. "They spent many hours practicing with me and by themselves as they tried to perfect their 5-minute performances."
