Red Hat Mamas

A strong southeast wind blew the 11 McDonald ladies transporting salads to join with the seven Bird City Red Hat Mamas who prepared desserts on May 17. The table at the Bird City Senior Center on West Bressler Street was an explosion of spring.

Marlene Young arranged for the group to tour Monty's Smoked Jerky, 215 South Bird Ave. before the potluck. This family-owned business was a quest to fill a niche for exceptional jerky in the mid 90s. Robyn Raile enthusiastically presided over the walk-through with aroma in the air. Each smoker holds 100 pounds of the beef that is raised locally featuring hormone and antibiotic free meat. The natural beef is cut and semi-frozen to allow for trimming and slicing every Monday. An overnight marinade of the strips and then its onto the racks and into the 160 degree smoker on Tuesday. Wednesday is packaging day. A strict schedule is kept as a U.S. Department of Agriculture inspector is on site every day.

Humorous reading chairwoman, Phyllis Wingfield, ensured members that laughter was the "cure all" and then followed with four stories to carry out her theme. The visual on the last one erupted into laughter. Two tables of exuberant dominoes were the afternoon enjoyment.

At the business meeting, Marlene Young was thanked for arranging the day. Queen, Margaret Voorhies, continued by announcing the June gathering will be a High Tea at the McDonald Senior Center.

Red Hat Mamas attending were Ana Antholz, Sandra Antholz, Frieda Black, Bonnie Burr, Linda Carroll, Bethel Goltl, Vernetta Haack, Bev Higgins, Diane Kribs, Iris McIntosh, Carol Mears, Lois Morelock, Edna Roesener, Connie Rooney, Joan Tongish, Margaret Voorhies, Phyllis Wingfield and Marlene Young.

Beecher Island News

There were 70 at Sunday school. Larry Allen gave the special number. Bridger Stroh gave the birthday offering.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Nayler visited Mr. and Mrs. Bill Strangways Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Osmus visited Mr. and Mrs. Tempy Bowman in Windsor over the weekend.

Judy Shively spent two weeks in Enterprise, Ala., with Keri and James Kennedy and family. Rowe met her at Kim and Mark Bow-mans in Tulsa where they got to watch Austin Bowman in the Special Olympics. Jamie Kennedy came home with them Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Mansfield visited Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mansfield.

Connie Ekberg of Colorado Springs visited Nelson and Jacque Ekberg this weekend.

Mallory Rose was home for the weekend and Chynna Rose came home for the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Rose.

The Haigler Village Wide Garage Sales on Saturday were lots of fun and many people from surrounding communities attended. Weather was great and everyone got good buys.

Memorial weekend activities

Haigler residents are anticipating many alumni to return to the place of their roots for a reunion and others for the Memorial Services this weekend. These events also provide an opportunity to meet old friends and former residents of the area that come for the occasions.

The American Legion members plan a Memorial Day Service that will start at 10 a.m. sharp on the Monday at the Haigler Cemetery.

Just a reminder of all the events happening in Haigler over this weekend, and that everyone is making plans to attend. Saturday, from 2 to 5 p.m. Haigler Alumni and friends open house will be held at the Community Legion Building and the 50th class reunion is hosting open house at Sage Hill Vineyard, Rock Creed Rd., from 2 to 4 p.m. The Dundy County/Stratton Alumni banquet will be held in Benkelman at the high school, 4 p.m.

Sunday is the traditional potluck luncheon at the Community Legion Building, Main Street, Haigler, and the 50th reunion class is hosting the program. That afternoon from 2 to 5 p.m. is open house at the Country School House Museum, and the proposed Haigler Cornerstone Museum on Porter Avenue. On Monday, Memorial Day services will be held at the Haigler Cemetry--followed by coffee and donuts at the Legion Building. Haigler alumni and community are invited to all of these events.

Haigler Red Hatters tea party

The Haigler Red Hatters celebrated May birthdays and their May meeting with a Mother Goose Red Hatters' Garden Tea Party on Thursday afternoon, May 19. Hostesses were the Collicott sisters: LaNeta Carlock, Myrna Mulligan and Gale-na Webster. Weather cooperated with sunshine, no rain, not much wind, and warmer temperatures.

The Carlock gardens and serving tables were decorated with Mother Goose characters. Refreshments were served "under the tent," and included Goosey Gander sugar cookies, Peter Rabbit carrot cupcakes, ants on a log; Humpty Dumpty egg sandwiches, Twinkle Star cucumber sandwiches, Miss Muffet cherry scones, Hey Diddle fruit kabobs, Mulberry bush tea, and London Bridge lemonade. Activities included searching gardens for the golden egg from Mother Goose, selected readings by Stan Carlock from his recently published book, "Where We Belong," and everyone sharing their favorite nursery rhyme and doll or stuffed animal.

The ladies who attended were Iona Maupin, Joann Webster, Jean Blecha, Esther Erdman, Eilene Erdman, Carolyn Rosenfelt, Kaye Kamla, Jean Moore, Belva Olson, Lois Zuege, Marilyn Bannister, Doris Tecker, and Veda Douglass--plus the hostesses. Everyone enjoyed the afternoon.

Dwight Wall visited his mother on Saturday. She accompanied him to his home at Lewellen and spent the night there. On Sunday morning they drove to Eustis, Neb., to attend the third birthday party of Olivia Wall, daughter of Caleb and Sherrill Wall. Her aunts, Azure and Jessica of Lincoln and Lyndsay Lashley of Palisade and her other great grandmother, Karen VanKooten, also grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ison and some neighbors were among the guests. Dwight brought Laura Pearl to her home on Sunday evening.

Floy Fisher is looking forward to this weekend when her son and wife, Garry and Sharon Fisher, arrive at their property near Wray. They have listed their California property in rural Newberry Springs on the Internet and plan to build a new home on their Wray property. Sharon will have retired this year from her position in education. Garry retired 2 years ago and has been concentrating on finishing touches to their home which they built there. They have it listed on the internet, hoping to sell it soon. Garry has built a solar system that gives them free heat and pumps their water from the well. Meanwhile, at Wray, they will be living in their travel trailer beside a steel building that was erected a few years ago.

Please report your week and weekend activities to phone number 308-297-3606, e-mail ffisher@bwtelcom.net, or drop by 338 Washington Avenue.

St. John's News:

Men's Bible Study is weekly on Thursday mornings from 7-7:30 a.m. at St. John's church. All men invited.

Sunday will be another "Fifth Sunday" worship service at St. John. Worshipping will be held outside (weather permitting!) and reflecting on the theme: "God's Gift of Re-Creation," Mark 6:30-32. Everyone is welcome to come to this different sort of worship service.

The St. John Community Vacation Bible School will begin daily, May 30-June 3, 8:30-11:30 a.m. for children ages 2 to 5th grade. The theme is, "Faith On The Plains." We will be looking at the story of Moses and the Exodus with a western twist! Through storytelling, music, art and games, children will experience frontier life, ride horses, cross rivers, and learn of a trust in God that helps us pass through the wilderness and reach a promised land.

Bible school will be done by 11:30 every day except Friday, when the program will be held at 11:30 for everyone to see how they spent the week learning. We hope your children can attend and look forward to exploring the adventures we have planned. For info or to volunteer please contact Kim Hall at (970) 219-5849.

Memorial Day service

The annual Idalia Community Memorial Day service will be held at St. John Cemetery on Monday at 11:30 a.m., immediately after Vacation Bible School. A luncheon provided by the Vacation Bible School will follow the service.
