Haigler News

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lewis visited Laura Pearl Wall on Wednesday of last week.

Daniela Webster of Iowa City, Iowa, has been in Haigler the past week visiting her parents, Stan and Galena Webster, family and friends.

The Carlock auction on Saturday was held at the Haigler Community Legion building despite the heat of 101 degrees. Many thought it just too hot to attend...which it was indeed...but those who did attend were able to get wonderful buys on quality items. Concessions and lunch were served by the Collicott sisters--with proceeds going towards the Haigler Cornerstone Museum project.

Carol Flaming, Heather, Logan and Noel Klein came on Thursday to Laura Pearl Wall's home and helped with house cleaning.

This is Dundy County Fair week... with lots of activities going on. Everyone is welcome to participate in the events...even in this hot, hot weather we are having.

Jerry, Carmen and Bailey Murray of Laird visited Laura Pearl Wall on Friday.

Bob and MerryLu Simmons and grandchildren, Laura, Madison and Spencer Perila visited Laura Pearl Wall on Saturday afternoon.

Dwight Wall and Sophia Zuege ate dinner with Laura Pearl Wall on Sunday.

Book Review

Book review from the St. Francis Public Library

Deja Vu

By Fern Michaels

Freedom tastes sweet, and the women of the Sisterhood have certainly earned theirs. Through dangerous missions, they've fought for the underdog, outwitting the bad guys at every turn. Thanks to a pardon from President Martine Connor, they can put their fugitive days behind them and resume their lives in peace. Still, in shared phone calls and texts, all the women admit that lately things are feeling a little too calm and peaceful. Meeting up for the first time in months to celebrate Kathryn's birthday-in the City of Sin, no less-seems like the perfect antidote.

But before they can kick up their heels something too big to pass up is dropped into their laps. The time has come to deal with Enemy #1, a/k/a Hank Jellicoe-wanted by FBI, the CIA, and Homeland Security for starters. President Connor herself has run out of patience with their lack of results. Only the Sisterhood, with their special blend of guts, imagination, and friends in all places are capable of pulling off the impossible-of hunting down this monster and taking him out once and for all...

APRONS, APRONS, APRONS — Aprons are practically a thing of the past. As ErvaGene DeAragon, director for the St. Francis Senior Center, said, many of the people don't have aprons today. 'We wore them when we had our good clothes on,' she said. Laura Pugh, an apron collector, brought in some of her aprons to display. Above, on Thursday at the Senior Center, Elton and Ella Mae Keller had their aprons on but Bill Bracelin said he didn't have one. Neil McCumber had on his work apron.
