Chapter U of P.E.O.

Chapter U of P.E.O. met the evening of Jan. 10 in recognition of P.E.O. Founders Day. Members gathered for a social hour and dinner at Riverside Recreation in St. Francis.

An entertaining program followed the dinner hour. A clever skit, honoring the P.E.O. founders and written by Louanne Isernhagen, was presented by several members of Chapter U.

Louanne also shared one of her first published pieces which was featured in the May/June 1997 issue of The P.E.O. Record.

The story entitled, "Something Old, Something New, Something Borrowed, Something Brown," tells of her grandmother's wedding dress worn at her marriage on Sept. 1, 1886. It was a brown, silk-like gown with a tiny, short jacket and a voluminous skirt. Handed down through the writer's family, the dress was redesigned, using the material of the original skirt with its many yards of fabric. It was also worn by her grandmother's four daughters which included Louanne's mother.... all choosing Sept. 1 as their wedding date. Louanne now has the dress and proudly displayed it and the published article at the end of the evening.

The history of the wedding dress and Louanne's masterful storytelling were enjoyed by all.

Annual student program recognizes scholarship winners

This year's edition of Fort Hays State University's annual 13-city, two-month Student Recognition Program will end in Colby on Monday, March 5. The focus of each event is the recognition of scholarship winners.

High school juniors and seniors and transfer students in Kansas, Nebraska and Colorado have been invited to an event in their area. The Colby event will be at 6:30 p.m. at Colby High School, 1890 S. Franklin. Pizza will be served. The deadline for reservations is Thursday, March 1.

Any student who lives outside the area is welcome to attend the nearest program, but must make a reservation by calling (800) 628-FHSU (3478) or (785) 628-5666 or at www.fhsu.edu/admissions/srp

Fort Hays alumni in each town will hold a reception, with a dessert or pizza buffet, provided by the Alumni Association. Students and their parents can mingle with faculty, staff and administrators and area alumni before and after the presentation. Alumni and others who are interested also are invited.

Scholarships to be awarded include the $1,200 Miller Black and Gold Academic Award and the $800 Hays City Silver Academic Award. Both are renewable provided students keep their grades up. Also to be awarded are the $2,000 Presidential Scholarship, the $700 Fort Hays Bronze Academic Award and the $500 Copper Academic Award, all one-time scholarships for incoming freshmen and the $1,000 Transfer Student Scholarship.

Students can also receive $500 or $900 Academic Opportunity Awards, given to scholars by academic departments.

President Edward H. Hammond will give a presentation and there will be two drawings - one for a $400 Student Recognition Program Scholarship and another for a laptop computer. Four $400 scholarships will be awarded at the reception in Hays.

Students from nine Kansas counties, two in Colorado and four in Nebraska are invited to the Colby event: Cheyenne, Decatur, Gove, Logan, Rawlins, Sheridan, Sherman, Thomas and Wallace in Kansas, Cheyenne and Kit Carson in Colorado, and Chase, Dundy, Hayes and Hitchcock in Nebraska.

Air Force band to play in Colby

By Christina Beringer
Colby Free Press

The Air Force Heartland of America Band's ensemble, Brass in Blue, will land in Colby later this month to perform "Once Heard, Never Forgotten...."

The free concert, sponsored by the Colby Free Press and Western Plains Arts Association, will be Thursday, Jan. 26, at the Colby High School auditorium. Guests can begin arriving as early as 6:30 p.m. and need to be seated at least 10 minutes before the 7:30 p.m. start.

Free tickets, required for admission, may be obtained by contacting Pat Ziegelmeier of the arts group at Colby Community College. Mail a self-addressed, stamped envelope to her at the college, 1255 S. Range Ave., with a note saying how many tickets you are requesting.

The 12-member symphonic brass ensemble will accompany a vocalist, a special treat. Guests can expect a combination of brass and percussion as the orchestra presents a repertoire featuring patriotic favorites, jazz standards, new compositions and other arrangements.

The Brass in Blue features precision performances in every concert, the Air Force says. Debuting in 2007, the group has graced stages from the Grand Teton Music Festival in Jackson, Wyo., to the Organ Vesper Series in Omaha.

It is one unit of 45 that make up the Heartland of America Band, which represents more than 325,000 Air Force service personnel. The full band performed in Colby several years ago.

"The squadron of musical professionals come from advanced degrees ... who have continually proven a broad mastery of musical styles from classic to contemporary, jazz to country, and pop to rock," said SSgt Carl Eitzen, tour director and trumpet player.

Eitzen said components of the Heartland band do more than 450 concerts a year throughout eight states that cover about 680,000 square miles. They perform for more than a million people through live, radio and television appearances.

Guest artists who have accompanied the band include John Denver, Frank Mantooth, Kevin Mahogany, Frederick Fennell, Chip Davis, Crystal Gayle, Wycliffe Gordon and Joseph Alessi.
