Village residents enjoy outing

Residents of the Good Samaritan Village were invited to the home of Glenn and Louanne Isernhagen for lunch on Monday. Additional local residents helped serve a lunch.

Guests were treated to brats and burgers cooked on the grill along with salads of various kinds and delicious ice cream sundaes to top off the meal on a "hot" July day.

Louanne and Glenn shared some historical information about the farm where they live and the vital part of the Salem Lutheran Church had played in the lives of the Isernhagens.

Louanne is the third "Mrs." Isernhagen to live on the farm. They also shared stories about the wedding of Otto and Alice Isernhagen.

Darlene Feikert, Jeff Paulsen, Ron Maifeld and Louanne entertained with musical selections. After the meal the group was invited to join in singing some favorites before returning to the van and making the trip home.
