Sendcards for 87th birthday

Bill Carmichael will celebrate his 87th birthday on Sunday, Oct. 29. He is back at home to celebrate and would appreciate cards sent to him at P.O. Box 781, St. Francis, KS 67756.

Items needed for holiday gifts

The list of items being collected for service men and women overseas has been posted in the grocery stores in both St. Francis and Bird City as well as the post office in St. Francis. Boxes are available to put items in.

It is the time of year when everyone needs to spend a little money to let our military overseas know we have not forgotten them, said Hulda Dorsch, American Legion Auxiliary chairman, and I am sure I am speaking for the vast majority of Americans.

For the next month everyone will want to show their solidarity and support for the United States troops by an ingathering of items that are needed, appreciated, and are morale boosters for the men and women in service.

Places where items can be taken include: Hometown Market and the senior center in Bird

Rough Writers Read
The public is invited to "Rough Writers Read with Kim Queen," third of a series of readings of creative writings by area residents at the Old Country Church, Sunday, October 28th, 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. Free-will donations will help cover expenses of using the church. The Cheyenne County Historical Society sponsors these readings.

Veterans' Affairs
Jody Tubbs of the Kansas Commission on Veterans' Affairs will be in St. Francis at 10:30 -11:30 a.m. at the County Clerk's office to assist veterans and their dependants with claims work on Thursday, Nov. 1. You can also contact Ms. Tubbs at her Colby office any Monday, Wednesday or Friday at 785-462-3572.

Catholic Church benefit dinner
The annual St. Francis Catholic Church turkey dinner benefit for the St. Francis Senior Center will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 4, at the St. Francis high school cafeteria.

The funds raised will go to help the senior center. Call 785-332-3454 for home delivery. See advertisement in this paper for more information.

Community Garden Volunteer dinner

To celebrate Food Day with the end of the season garden harvest with Community Garden Volunteers and their families, there will be a community garden dinner from 6 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday,

Oct. 24, at the United Methodist Church. Those who volunteered in the planning process or growing and harvesting should plan to come and bring their family. Anyone interested in joining the Community Garden Club next year is also welcome.
