

A BLIZZARD moved into the St. Francis area Saturday afternoon, leaving only 3-inches snow. Accidents and blowing snow caused the highway crew to close U.S. 36 west from Atwood to the Colorado state line and K-27 north from Goodland to the Nebraska state line on Sunday. I-70 was also closed from Goodland west to Airpark Road in Colorado. Pat Owens, owner of Owens True Value was shoveling the snow in front of his business Monday morning and the birds, left, were looking for some seed under the snow-laden roof of their bird feeder. Herald photos by Karen Krien
