Students do well at music festival

Four soloists earned top ratings at the 1-2-3-4A Regional Music Festival and have qualified to go to the State Music Festival. The regional festival was held in Oberlin on Saturday.

Earning I ratings were Sarah Whitmore, flute; Sydney Sundstrom, trumpet; Taylor

Archibald and Bailey Merklin, both with vocal solos. Also performing well and earning a II+ rating was Hannah Wolff, snare drum solo.

The 1A State Music Festival is scheduled for Saturday, April 27, in Wichita. The three-week interval between regional and state gives the students time to implement the suggestions for improvement that were made by the judges on Saturday.

"I was proud of the performances these soloists presented," said Debbie Fiala, St. Francis Community High School music instructor. "They represented St. Francis very well."
