

Shrader—Cox

Couple announces upcoming wedding

Roy and Karen Shrader of Bird City announce the engagement of their daughter, Colleen Shrader, to Jared Cox, the son of Clayton and Cathy Cox of Norton.

The bride-to-be is a 2008 Cheylin graduate and graduated in May 2012 from Arizona State University with a bachelor's degree in Management (Entrepreneurship). She is currently pursuing a dance career and working as an administrative associate at U.S. Airways Express.

Jared is a 2008 Norton graduate and graduated in March 2012 from DeVry University with a bachelor's degree in 3D Graphics and Simulations Programming. He is working as an Arizona Regional Sales Trainer at U.S. Jesco International.

The couple met through Camp Lakeside in Scott City where they were junior high counselors. They plan to marry on Aug. 10 at the First United Methodist Church in Norton.

4-H'ers go to shooting event in Goodland

Four of the Cheyenne County 4-H'ers enrolled in the shooting program attended the Sherman County 4-H event on Sunday, June 23, at the Goodland Gun Club. The shoot was sponsored by Melvin Crow.

Over 30 4-H shooters participated and Cheyenne County 4-H'ers had three first placers.

Francis (O'Leary) and I were tickled to see our kids do so well, said Rodney Radcliff. Both Mr. O'Leary and Mr. Radcliff are instructors.

Placing first were: Bradey Hansen, senior boys division,

Lawn Ridge 4-H Club; and Dallas Reed and Emily Elfers, senior girls division, Plum Creek 4-H Club.

Also participating was Brice Hays, an intermediate shooter, Plum Creek 4-H Club.

This was the second year the local 4-H'ers have competed in the Sherman County event. The 4-H shooting program is sponsored by the Cheyenne County Wildlife organization. Each year, they purchase the clay pigeons for the 4-H'ers and they receive a grant to help with ammunition.
