Thank You

The Cheylin High School and Junior High Cheer teams would like to thank everyone who helped with the Cajun Cookout/Fundraiser this year. Every year we appreciate the continued support and help from so many people in our community and those surrounding us. A special thanks to all the Cajun volunteers who helped make this last Friday evening such a success! Amy Hendricks and Tammi Carmichael.

We would like to thank everyone for all the acts of kindness shown to Mother prior to her passing and to us since that time. Thank you to the staff of the Dundy County Hospital for the best nursing care ever witnessed, not only to Mother, but to us; to Northwest Kansas Homecare for their visits which always included listening to Mother's stories of her nursing days; to the people of the communities of Bird City, St. Francis and Benkelman for providing assistance so Mother could remain in her own home and for the expressions of comfort, including food, visits, cards and prayers for us; to Pastor Tom Bailey for his visits to the hospital and for the very personal Celebration of Life service; to the ladies of the Immanuel United Methodist Church for the delicious meal after the service; and to our circle of friends and family who are such a blessing to us; a special thank you to the Sweazy sisters for being there, always. Merla and Beth Hoffman

Thank you for the visits, phone calls, beautiful cards, flowers and gifts. It made my birthday very special. Ilene Raile

Thank you to all who have been so caring and supportive at this time. Mom loved this community and the friends she came to know while living here. Sincerely, Jim, Ruth, Kelley, Kari, Dustin, J.W., Tonya and the three great grands.
