Area church to host Bible school

Peace Lutheran Church, St. Francis, will host a "Barnabas Team" of young people from the Association of Free Lutheran Congregations, Minneapolis, Minn., during the week of Aug. 4 through Aug. 8.

Members of the team are Andrew Kneeland, Tucson, Ariz., Sam Nelson, Brookings, Ore., Rachael Ballmann, Kopperl, Texas, and Megan Schierkolk, Jerex, Mexico. They are students at the Association Free Lutheran Bible School, that are spending the summer traveling the United States, assisting congregations with daily Vacation Bible School programs, summer youth camps, and other areas of service. They have been trained in the use of music, puppets and one-to-one ministry to assist local congregations in their summer work.

Daily Bible school at the church will be held from 5 to 8 p.m. All children ages 3 years to six grade are welcome to attend.

To register contact the church at 785-332-2928. The children will present a Bible school program on Aug. 8 at 6:30 p.m. The community is invited to see a wonderful program and a time of fellowship afterwards.

Across the County

Northwest Area District Horse Show Held in Oakley

The Northwest Area District Horse Show was held in Oakley on July 9. Close to 45 youth from 14 counties in the northwest area competed in the horse show.

The district show gives 4-H horse exhibitors the opportunity to qualify for the State Horse Show held during the Kansas State Fair in September. In order to qualify, exhibitors must receive a purple or blue placing.

Cateline Isley from Cheyenne County traveled to Oakley to compete in the show. Cateline had a strong showing on her horse, "Hollywood Smarty Cat." The pair received a purple in English Equitation, qualifying them for the state contest and securing a spot on the northwest area versatility team. In addition, Cateline qualified for Horsemanship with a purple, Reining with a purple and the Trail Class with a blue.

The horse show is held during the last weekend of the Kansas State Fair, Sept. 13-15 in Hutchinson.

Thank You

Thank you to the Cheyenne County Hospital, nurses, doctors and staff for all their care and compassion for our beloved Esther Brunswig. She was loved and will be greatly missed. A big thank you also to the following: Peace Lutheran Church and staff; Knodel Funeral Home, and all of her neighbors, friends and family for their support and sympathy in her passing. Special thank you to all who sent flowers, cards and food. You have made a difference in our lives and helped us get through such a difficult time.
