Bird City Teens For Christ have first meeting after summer break

Opening night of Bird City Teens For Christ was a big success. Thirty-seven youth attended the event Wednesday, Aug. 21. The junior high students competed with the senior high students in a giant banana split contest. The youth then turned the St. John Lutheran Church lawn into a winter wonderland while turning each other into snowmen during the shaving cream wars, in which 70 cans of shaving cream were used.

Clean up from the shaving cream was provided via 350 water balloons.

The sponsors remarked that many of the items were donated to the event. Bird City Teens For Christ meets Wednesday nights at 7:30 p.m. in the basement of St. John Lutheran Church. Youth from sixth through 12th grade are welcome to attend.

Each evening starts with games. After the games the senior high students leave to the United Methodist Church for their music and lesson time while the junior high students stay at the Lutheran Church. Each Teen For Christ meeting ends at 9 p.m.

Pastor Doug Mason asked that a "friendly reminder" go out to the coaches that team practices should end at 6 p.m. on Wednesday nights. The earlier time allows the youth to be able to participate in this important spiritual growth activity.
