Thank You

I want to express my appreciation for all the cards, phone calls, flowers, visits and gifts for my birthday. It's such a wonderful feeling to be remembered in so many ways. God bless you all for making my day such a special event. Alice Isernhagen

We, the families of Teena Gienger McDanel, were overwhelmed by the love and concern shown us in so many ways during the illness and passing of Teena. We want to thank Bobby's mother, Shirley McDanel, for being here nearly 6 weeks from Long Island, N.Y., to help Bobby and Katie. Thanks to Pastor Glenn Kribs, Rob Meyer, John Coumerilk and Mary Ellen for coming to Denver to be with family while Teena was a Swedish Hospital and also for their comforting words at the services. Morita, thank you for making Rob, John and their wives feel welcome in a church other than their own. The delicious meal served to our family by the United Methodist Women was wonderful! We all miss Teena but know that she is now in the home of her heavenly Father. Pete and Wanda Gienger, Tonya Gienger, Tony, Joan, Jody and Kari Gienger, Bobby and Katie McDanel

Idalia News

By Elsie
Shanks

Lions Club
The Idalia Lions Club was revitalized recently with the induction of 12 members by past international director Tom Toliver following a spaghetti dinner held Jan. 24. This is the first time the Idalia club has included female members. The Idalia club is committed to contributing time and money to local and national services and needs. Anybody interested in being part of Lions can attend a meeting the second and fourth Mondays or talk to any Lions member for more information.

The Idalia Homestead Foundation annual meeting will be Thursday, Feb. 17 at 7 p.m. in the Homestead building. Officer elections will be held at this time. All community members are urged to attend.

26 cast members of the Idalia Melodrama group attended the Heritage Square Melodrama, "Under the Gas Light" during which there were many comments and references directed to the future Idalia performance which will be held April 8-9. Everyone had a great time.

It's a girl

Brian and Casie Egloff are the proud parents of a girl born Jan. 16, 2005 at Wray Community District Hospital. They named her Brianna Madison Egloff. Also welcoming her into the family are grandparents Blain and Carrie Sharp of Vernon and George and Susan Egloff of Napas, Calif. Great-grandparents are Lucy and Dwane Eastin of Eckley and Jim and Phyllis Sharp of Burlington.

The great great grandparents are Willie Sharp of Burlington, and Tillie Andrew of Wray.

Notice

Women's Fellowship will meet Wednesday, Feb. 9 at 1 p.m. Come early to go through the cupboards to see what is needed to be replaced.

Anniversary

Howard and Burdine Homm will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary Saturday, Feb. 5 from 2-4 p.m. at Immanuel Lutheran Church, north of Bethune hosted by their family.

Pinochle Club

Violet Knapp attended her Pinochle Club Wednesday afternoon hosted by Betty Hitchcock at their home in Burlington.

Desirea Jimmis of Wray spent the week with her grandmother, Evelyn Flick who wasn't feeling good. She arrived Sunday night.

School Board

Wayne Weyerman, president, called the January meeting to order with all board members present.

Items approved included the agenda, the consent agenda, dismissal of school Jan. 4, 5 and 6 due to implement weather, the first reading of 11 policies.

Discussion items included grants that have been received from Kitzmiller-Bales Trust, Powell-Ebeler Trust and Gerber Trust and the possibility of receiving the Colorado First Reading Grant.

Shonda Anderson was introduced as a new student teacher working with Donna Karspeck. Justin Hardwick reported on several maintenance projects he is working on. Tim Krause explained that each teacher will be getting a new wireless laptop that everyone will be trained for using. Mr. Krause also demonstrated the new mobile computer lab, which includes ten wireless laptops with wireless connections to be used in all classrooms when needed.

The next regular meeting will be Wednesday, Feb. 16.

St. John United Church of Christ News

High School Artist in Residence

Idalia High School residence last week and thus was given the incredible opportunity to create masterpiece. Being a man of high prestige. Tony Ortega showed many less accomplished artist that even can paint paradise.

After brainstorming over 150 themes that run through the community students were presented with a sketch containing several of those themes. The next step was to then gigantic pieces of carbon paper to trace a rough copy onto the canvas. From there the mural slowly began to show itself. The road did not seem so long, though, because of the help Tony provided. Intentions to finish the mural, however, were destroyed as the weather did not permit. But have no fear! Tony will be back in March and the mural will then be unveiled.

Tony provided the recognition he had received for the art is indeed deserved for his art is indeed deserved as he continued his role as an educator even to the plains for the past 15 years. Tony has enjoyed taking network outside of his tradi-cousins, Marge and Russ.

Arlene (Havlik) Jones of Kearney announces the birth of another great-granddaughter, Torie Dianne, on Jan. 17. The baby is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brady Jones of Kearney. Dean and Dianne Jones of Riverdale, Neb., are the proud grandparents.

Brooke Stewart of McCook Neb., spent from Saturday until Thursday of last week at the home of her grandparents, Calvin and Susan Freehling in Haigler. Her parents, Kevin and Lara Stewart, were in Texas on a business trip.

Richard and Wanda Walter of St. Francis were Sunday dinner guests of Calvin and Susan Freehling on Jan. 23. They made the acquaintance of the Freehling's granddaughter, Brooke, Stewart, of McCook.

Dusty Wall and daughters, Sydney and Gracie, visited their grandparents, Richard and Laura Pearl Wall, on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 30.

Visitors in the home of Gerald and Betty Myer during the past week were Betty's brother, Jerry Smith, of Holyoke, Colo.; Bob Keating of Palisade, Charlie and Myrna Mulligan and LaNeta Carlock of Haigler. Grace Adams, also of Haigler, was a dinner and afternoon guest at the Myer home on Sunday, Jan. 30.

The Haigler United Methodist Women will meet in the church basement at noon on Friday, Feb. 4., for their Call to Prayer and Self-Denial service. They will have their traditional soup luncheon, followed by the program,

Book Reviw

Celeste

By
V.C. Andrews

Celeste and her identical twin brother, Noble, are as close as can be, until a tragic accident takes Noble's life. It's a loss that pushes their mother, a woman obsessed with New Age superstitions, over the edge...

Everyone in Celeste's tiny rural town gossiped about Sarah Atwell and her strange beliefs in crystals and herbal potions. but no one except her daughter, Celeste, can know the depth of her madness in the wake of Noble's death. Desperate to keep her son "alive," Sarah forces Celeste to cut her hair, wear boys' clothes, and take on Noble's identity.. forbidden any contact with the outside world, Celeste has virtually disappeared, until a handsome boy moves in next door, and Celeste will risk her mother's wrath to let herself come back to life.

Order for closing of books before city/school elections

Published in The Saint Francis Herald, St. Francis, Kansas, and the Bird City Times, Bird City, Kansas, Thursday, February 3, 2005. (5)
