IMMUNIZE YOUR TRUE PRIZE

Babies depend on you, as new parents, for so much in the early stages of life – food, shelter and lots of love. They also count on you to protect their future, so that they may grow up healthy.

That's why it's essential to immunize your child with the proper vaccinations by 24 months of age. You'll lower or eliminate the risk of many preventable diseases and illnesses. It's the best way to protect your future, and the future of the new life with which you've been given.

Contact your provider today and find out if they participate in the "Immunize and Win a Prize" vaccination program. Keeping your child's immunizations up to date is a gift you'll both be grateful for.

This message brought to you by the Kansas Department of Health and Environment and its partners. For more information, visit KDHE at <http://www.kdhe.state.ks.us/immunize>

Pinochle Club
Violet Knapp attended her Pinochle Club Wednesday afternoon hosted by Amanda Jacobson at her home.

Family Community Education Club
The Bicentennial Family and Community Education meeting was held Thursday, Feb. 17, at St. John United Church of Christ Fellowship Hall. Priscilla Lindsey, president, called the meeting to order and the members repeated the club creed together. Roll call, your favorite unhealthy food, was answered by 10 members and 1 guest. The treasurer report was given and a bill for sale supplies. District handbook and a donation to the Idalia Visions Scholarship Fund was approved.

Correspondence consisted of a thank you letter from the Wray group that collected for the Tsunami fund for the club's donation.

The Bicentennial Family Community Education Club and the Idalia Lions Club will work together on a benefit for the dialysis center to be constructed in Burlington. There was a motion that the committee make final plans and report to the club.

Kathy Fonte is organizing a quilt display in the school. There is a need for additional displays. There was a motion that the Family Community Education Club be in charge of 1 or 2 of the display areas and maintain them. The displays need to be done by June 11 in time for the school reunion.

Yuma County Extension Agent, Joy Akey, presented a very interesting program and slide show on vitamins, minerals and supplements.

Refreshments were served by Susan Knodel and Cindy Soehner. The next meeting will be Thursday, Mar. 17 with Sheryl and Beverly as hostesses. The program will be on organizing your home. Linda Evans will bring the scholarship basket.

St. John United Church of Christ

St. John United Church of Christ invites everyone to come join them. Confirmation class is at 9:30 during Sunday school with six attending. Sunday school for all ages is at 10 a.m. Worship service is at 11 a.m.

Attention
Mark your calendars for Wednesday, Feb. 23 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Come by the Visions Foundation Building for coffee and cookies and meet Marlene Miller and Denice Baucke RN.

Marlene is the Yuma and Washington County Senior Services coordinator and Ombudsman. She can assist people ages 60 plus with various programs through the Area Agency on Aging.

Denice is a nurse from Wray Hospital and the new community case manager. She can check your blood pressure that day and fill everyone in on the new program she is developing to assist community members in finding any services or resources they might need regardless of age.

These two women are also SHIP counselors and can help answer any Medicare questions you might have. Come by and enjoy coffee and cookies and meet these two. They would like to come once a month if there is a need, so come by and say hello!

Cell phones

The Idalia school is collecting old used cell phones for recycling. For more information contact the school.

The Idalia Foundation held their annual meeting Thursday, Feb. 17 at the Homestead building. Ron Chamberlain was elected as a new board member to replace Wayne Weyerman. They then held their business meeting.

Sewing day was held February 15, tying 15 quilts to be given to the sick.

Brad and Nancy Long, Michael, Trella and Alex of Burlington were Saturday morning visitors of grandparents, Clark and Mildred Rolow before attending the wrestling in which Trella and Alex participated in.

Kirk, Rhonda Dienes of Peyton, Colo. and son, Derek student of Western State were Saturday and Sunday visitors and overnight guests of her grandmother, Elsie Shanks. They all were Saturday night dinner guests of Darrell and Rosemary Shanks. Sunday they all enjoyed dinner together. The men toured the area. Rhonda cleaned for her grandmother. They all viewed the cows and new calves.

Book Review

Birthright

By Nora Roberts

On a hot July afternoon, a worker at an Antietam Creek construction site drives the blade of his backhoe into a layer of soil — and strikes a 5,000-year-old human skull. The discovery draws plenty of attention and a lot of controversy. It also changes the life of one woman in ways she never expected ...

As an archaeologist, Callie Dunbrook knows a lot about the past. But her own past is about to be called into question. Recruited for her expertise on the Antietam Creek dig, she encounters danger — as a cloud of death and misfortune hangs over the project, and rumors fly that the site is cursed. She finds a passion that feels equally dangerous, as she joins forces in her work with her irritating, but irresistible, ex-husband, Jake. And when a strange woman approaches her, claiming to know a secret about Callie's privileged Boston childhood, some startling and unsettling questions are raised about her very identity.

Searching for answers, trying to rebuild, Callie finds that there are deceptions and sorrows that refuse to stay buried. And as she struggles to put the pieces back together, she discovers that the healing process comes with consequences — and that there are people who will do anything to make sure the truth is never revealed.

Nora Roberts, the first writer to be inducted into the Romance Writers of America Hall of Fame, is the number-one New York Times — bestselling author of many novels. She lives in Maryland.
