

Family Celebrating 30 years

The children of Jerry and Debbi Foss would like to announce their parents' 30th wedding anniversary on April 17. The couple was married in Colby on April 17, 1971.

Friends may send cards to their home at 1330 N. Brookside in Colby.

90-year-old lady celebrated her birthday

Ada Rogge, lifelong resident of Russell Springs, recently celebrated her 90th birthday with parties in both Colby and Russell Springs. It was a joyous celebration shared with many family members and friends. Some of those attending from out-of-town were Don and Verena Rogge, Littleton, Colo.; Bill and Dorothy Rogge, Libby, Mont.; Myra and Chuck Wilson, Norman, Okla.; Nevada Farris, Houston, Texas; Gordon Cook, Oklahoma City; Maggie Wilson and daughter Emily, Littleton, Colo.; Anna Kelly, Scott City; Emil and Olive Rogge, Eileen Straach, Pat and Bill Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Graham and children, all of Fowler, Colo. The best wishes of Ada's hometown friends made the occasion very special with much appreciation to Dean and Joye Rogge.

Contributed by Nevada Farris.

Judy Parsons, Page City, is doing well. Ed Horinek remains in Citizens Medical Center in Colby. It was learned Monday afternoon that Wyatt Werth, along with his other injuries, now has a broken right arm. A specialist checked him on Tuesday and put it in a cast. Hang in there, Wyatt – it has to get better.

Welcome moisture has been received.. The comment is "Would sure be nice to see the sun." We have had a lot of fog also.

There was no Tuesday dinner as it was election day and we voted in the Chamber Building. Bargella quilt is over half done.

Winona and Russell Springs area received a bad storm on Friday afternoon, April 6. Had very strong winds, 1.20 inches of rain and marble size hail. So spring is definitely here.

April 7-8 weekend guests of Darlene Stramel in Page City were Carolyn and Nolan Theobald of Santa Rosa, Calif.

ROTARY
April 10 Rotary meeting was presided by President Nancy LePell. Visiting Rotarian guest was Mack Teasley from Abeline. President Nancy thanked Abilene Henry for volunteering to chair the highway pickup on Saturday, April 28.

May 1 is the deadline for cruise raffle tickets. Remember the money goes for the Rotary Hunger Plus Program.

Les Brown then introduced Mack Teasley who recently went to Panama with the Hunger Plus Program. He is the Assistant Director of the Eisenhower Library in Abeline. He has been honored as Rotary District Governor Nominee for the year 2002-2003.

Mr. Teasley brought slides to show his trip to Panama and how the Hunger Plus Program works. On this trip there were 20 Rotarians plus their spouses.

They took a bus and traveled to the different cities to distribute the 20 pound packages of food. These packages contained rice, lentils, cooking oils, and sardines. They fed 7,000 people in one week. Mack Teasley told of the great feeling of being involved with such a service group as Rotary.

In Panama the Rotary groups have helped communities with hospitals, fire stations, libraries, and housing for orphans. They also have programs to teach individuals to raise chickens and small gardens to grow food.
