Emil Fischer, OFM Cap.
Fr. Emil Fischer, QFM Cap., 60, died April 23, 2001, at Vincentian Nursing Home, North Hills, Pittsburgh, Penn, after a long illness.
Fr. Emil's first assignment was to youth ministry in Victoria, where he worked as professor at St. Fidelis High School Seminary from 1968-70, and as recruitment director for St. Thomas More Preparatory School (1970-71) in Hays. Fr. Emil served as pastor of various parishes in the Province of St. Augustine of Capuchin Friars, SS. Cyril & Methodius and St. John Nepomecene Parishes, Atwood, Bird City and St. Francis, (1971-1975); St. Mary Parish, Herndon, (1975-77). Before returning east in 1977, Fr. Emil received a certificate in law enforcement from Colby Community College in Colby and served as chief juvenile probation officer in Rawlins County, from 1971-1977.
His funeral will be celebrated at 11 a.m. Friday, at Our Lady of the Angels Parish, St. Augustine Church, 225 37th Street, Pittsburgh, Penn. Burial will be in the friar's plot at St. AugusVne Cemetery, Millvale, Penn.
In lieu of flowers, the Capuchin Franciscan Friars respectfully request donations for the care of sick and elderly friars to be sent to the Capuchin Development Center at P.O. Box 15099, Pittsburgh, PA, 15237.

Farewell set for youth leaders

The Colby Berean Church, 1000 South Franklin, is hosting a farewell reception for Kendal and Janice Aldrich, Kelsey and Joel, this coming Sunday afternoon from 2-4 p.m. Kendal has accepted the position of camp director for Shepherd of the Ozarks, a Christian camp near Harriet, Ark.
Kendal came to Colby 19 years ago to be the director of TFC Connections, a ministry to teenagers in our area. This has involved weekly meetings with teenagers as well as many area activities with TFC Connections and yearly mission trips. Kendal and Janice, Kelsey and Joel have been active in the Berean Church and have served in a number of leadership positions in the church. Kendal has also served on the Greater Northwest Crusade committee which has twice sponsored meetings with Evangelist Dave Roever and presently the upcoming Jerry Johnston Family Event.

Aldrich

Janice has taught in the Colby Schools for 13 years. She is currently teaching the Family and Consumer Services classes for both the middle and high school.
Kelsey is a 7th grader and Joel a 5th grader in the Colby Middle School.
Everyone is welcome to attend this farewell reception.
