Graduation ceremonies draw good crowd

Several people were on hand to participate in the area graduation services. A good crowd was on hand for all the graduations, and I know the students appreciated the folks that took the time to come to their special activities. The weather tried to interfere, but I don't think anyone was blown over by the wind. At least, we hoped not.

We have some hospital reports, and it appears everyone is on the mend. Kay Norton has been operated on and is now in swing bed at Northwest Kansas Regional Hospital. Lore Depe is continuing therapy at Lantern Park church. Richard Brickell will be preparing barbecued pork, and everyone is asked to bring side dishes for the meals, as well as their own table service and lawn chairs. Drinks will be provided. Those attending are encouraged to dress in pioneer attire. Everyone is welcome.

A 60th anniversary celebration will be held for Cyril and Twila Saddler on Saturday, June 16, at an open house from 2-4 p.m. at the Ramada Inn, changed our minds for us. It is a good thing that we didn't go, as Brian started feeling bad on Monday afternoon. Michele took him to the emergency room, on Monday evening, and on Tuesday, the gall bladder was removed. So, in spite of not being able to spend some time with the grandkids, I think Brian was right where he should have been. All is fine now, although I imagine Brian is a little more than sore. Hopefully, we will be able to have a delayed fishing trip later in the summer.

Lots of folks are gone this week, but should be back by the weekend. Marge Westover will be home tomorrow, and so will Frances Jones. We missed them at potluck, but we did have a good meal.
