Cub Scout fun

TONYA SAGER/Colby Free Press

Cub Scouts Braden Sager, left, and Aaron Nichols, notch their bows with assistance from an adult leader at the Cub Scout Day Camp at the Armory in Goodland. Thirty-five boys from Pack 140 of Colby were among 120 Cub Scouts from northwest Kansas attending. Activities included archery, laser bb guns, kick ball, obstacle course, and making boomerangs. The Goodland Fire Department visited and the boys and leaders got to shoot the fire hose.

Club News

Citizens Medical Center Auxiliary

The annual membership, election and awards dinner for Citizens Medical Center Auxiliaries was held on Thursday, Oct. 18, at 5 p.m., in the board room at Citizens Medical Center. The cafeteria staff prepared and served the light meal.

Jeanene Brown, director of volunteers, introduced guest speaker, Rep Jim Morrison, who presented an interesting overview of what is going on in the Kansas legislature, medically-wise, and what we can do to help get bills passed.

The slate of officers for 2002 was presented and approved, and include the following: president, Rosemary Bange; vice-president, Carolyn Miller; treasurer, Florence Gilchrist; and secretary, Morna Jordan. Rosemary and Carolyn will be attending the Hospital Auxiliaries of Kansas convention in Wichita, on Nov. 13-15.

Awards for volunteer hours were presented by Lois Myers to the following hospital volunteers. Rosemary Bange, Mildred Barnett, Virginia Hopper, Christa Nye, Betty Secrest, Mary Smith, Dorothy Stephens and Gwen M. Young.

Pi Gamma

The Sept. 21 meeting of Pi Gamma was held at the home of Pat Tubbs. Members enjoyed a delicious breakfast served by the club officers. Thank you notes from the Senior Progress Center for the donation of Western Plains Arts Association tickets, and for Pi Gamma's contribution to HOBY were read. It was noted that Bev Biel will be inactive for the year. It was decided that Pi Gamma and Shakespeare club would work together to clean ditches this fall. Bev Eicher presented the program, entitled "Tribute to a Lady," in memory of Patsy Baalman. Peggy Miller read a Poem entitled Dream, which was written by her son, Taylor. Roll call was answered by a special memory of Patsy.

Area residents enjoy visiting with friends

Bruce and Marsha Metzler of Rancho Murieta, Calif., spent several days visiting their parents, Jack and Berniece Luker of Levant.

Merna Griffin returned recently from a vacation to California where she visited her brother, Leo and Louise Metzler and other relatives in the San Diego area.

Bruce and Marsha Metzler called on Merle and Helen Metzler of Brewster Friday afternoon.

Saturday evening dinner guests in the Jack Luker home were Joe Rudell, Bettie Hamill, Bud and Peggy Stupka, Jim and Hedy Tubbs, Bruce and Marsha Metzler. Mona Stupka was unable to attend. Denise Schieferecke called later in the evening.

About Town

Glenda Merideth flew out of Kansas City to Fayetteville, N.C. to visit her daughter, Amanda Call and family for a month. While at the Calls she got better acquainted with her new granddaughter, Alixus Taylor. Kevin Call's father, Dave Call, and wife Dona of Chanute, and Dave's mother, Jeanine Call of Hays, drove to the Calls also. While there, the Calls, Glenda, Kevin's brother and wife Kenny and Kim Call of Smithfield, N.C., Mr. and Mrs. Dave Call and Jeanine Call traveled to Wilmington, N.C. and toured the Battleship North Carolina. Commissioned in 1941, USS North Carolina was the first of the 10 fast battleships built by the US Navy and used in World War II. During the war she earned 15 battle stars and participated in every major naval offensive in the Pacific from Guadalcanal to Okinawa.

Glenda says everyone had a nice time exploring the pilot house, engine room, sick bay, coding room, main, upper and lower decks. After the battleship tour, they enjoyed the afternoon at Atlantic Beach, N.C., returning back to Fayetteville that night. The Calls and Glenda spent the weekend at Smithfield, N.C. with Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Call. They all went to Emerald Isle Beach, N.C.

The next week, the Calls and Glenda traveled to Stuart, Fla., to visit Mrs. Alvin Donn, Kenny Donn, Dennis and Jackie (Donn) McGuire and family, and Michael Donn, Glenda's aunt and three cousins. This is the first time Glenda had ever been to Florida to visit these relatives. While there, the Calls and Glenda stayed at the Pirates' Cove Resort and Marina. They enjoyed visiting, driving along the oceanfront and beach, and visiting the McGuire's beautiful home.

Misty Merideth, Hays, flew out of Kansas City to visit her sister Amanda Call and family for two weeks this summer. While at the Calls, she got better acquainted with her new niece, Alixus Taylor. They were all houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Call, Smithfield, N.C. and enjoyed Emerald Isle Beach, N.C.

Misty and the Calls drove to Washington, D.C. and saw the sights, including Arlington Cemetery, the White House, Lincoln Memorial, Washington Monument, Mount Vernon where George and Martha Washington are buried, etc.

RSVP volunteers need donations of baby yarn to make baby booties for new babies at the hospital. Leave it at the Senior Progress Center.

Shakespeare Club

Colby Shakespeare Club met at the home of Helen Frahm on Oct. 26, with 10 members present. President Delores Ary called the meeting to order by asking the members to recite the flag salute and repeat the club collect. In keeping with the program to follow, roll call was answered with each member recalling a memorable moment of Shakespeare.

President Delores thanked Shakespeare member, Joyce Hansen, Amie Kendrick and Kathy Calliharn for helping at the Lester Barrett funeral. She also reported on the highway pickup with Pi Gamma. Both the Pi Gamma and the Shakespeare routes were cleaned and there will be a decision made later as to what will be done concerning the next year's project.

Helen Frahm, a 50-year member of Shakespeare gave a talk on Memories of Shakespeare. Each member present shared who invited her to be a member and also spoke of the first meeting she attended. Shakespeare Club was organized in Colby in 1907 and federated in 1908.

Helen shared many old program books, and members enjoyed the memories of past members and also the interesting programs given in the early years of the club. It was a fun day; remembering all the dear friends we have shared through the years.

The next meeting will be at Margaret Schiffner's home on Nov. 9.

Kountry Kitchen

This recipe originated in Pie Town, N.M. population 75, located 85 miles southwest of Albuquerque.

Pie-O-Neer Coconut Cream Meringue Pie
Pastry for a 9-inch single crust pie, unbaked

Filling:
1 cup sweetened flaked dried coconut
1 cup sugar
1/4 cup cornstarch
2 and 1/4 cups whole milk
3 large eggs, (separate yolks and whites into two bowls)
1 teaspoon vanilla

Meringue:
1/3 cup sugar
1 and 1/2 teaspoons cornstarch
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
1/8 teaspoon salt

With fork, prick bottom and sides of unbaked pastry in pan at about 1-inch intervals. Bake in a 375 degree oven until golden, (about 15 minutes.) Let cool on wire rack. (Turn oven temperature down to 325.) Scatter coconut over bottom of pastry. In large saucepan, mix 1 cup sugar, 1/4 cup cornstarch, milk and egg yolks until well blended. Stir over medium-high heat for about 15 minutes or until mixture thickens. Remove from heat and stir in vanilla. Pour over coconut in crust. In a small bowl, mix 1/3 cup sugar and 1 and 1/2 teaspoons cornstarch, set aside. In a deep bowl, with mixer on high speed, beat egg whites, cream of tartar and salt until very foamy. Add sugar-cornstarch mixture, 1 tablespoon at a time, and continue to beat until meringue holds stiff, glossy peaks. Spoon meringue onto hot pie filling, spreading evenly to rim of pie shell. Bake in 325 degree oven for 15 minutes or until meringue is lightly browned. Let pie cool on rack for about 3 hours. Makes 8 servings. Cover and refrigerate leftovers.
