Informational meeting set for Walk Kansas

There will be a short informational meeting for the Walk Kansas program Thursday, from 12:10 to 12:50 p.m. at the 4-H Building. "We'll go over all the details of the program and give you a chance to meet some of the other walk-training participants," said D'Ette Scholtz, Thomas County Extension Agent. Teams are asked to have one or two team members attend the meeting. Bring a sack lunch!

The program will kick-off Saturday, March 16. Teams are competing in a fun and fitness program by logging their miles, in various forms of exercise, to see if from March 16 through May 10 they can collectively walk 423 miles, the distance across the state of Kansas. There will be maps up in the Extension Office and at the public library charting the teams' progress.

USDA Commodity distribution will be Monday, March 18, from 3-5 p.m. at the RSVP office in the Senior Progress Center. Eligible persons may receive them according to income guidelines on the above date and time only, said Laura Withington, RSVP director. Expected commodities are cranberry juice, potato flakes, peanut butter, cherries, apricots, plums, navy beans and canned potatoes. For more information, contact Withington at 462-6744.

The board of directors and the advisory council of the Northwest Kansas Area Agency on Aging will meet at 10 a.m. on March 20 at the Q-Inn Restaurant in Quinter. For more information call the Northwest Kansas Area

Training for new Client Assessment, Referral and Evaluation (CARE) assessors in northwest Kansas will be held on Thursday, April 4, said Lesley Bartlett, public information officer for the Northwest Kansas Area Agency on Aging. The training in Hays will be held in the Board Room (2nd floor) of the Sunflower Electric Building in Hays. Registration for the training will begin at 8:30 a.m. and the training will conclude at 4 p.m.

Anyone seeking nursing facility placement must have a CARE assessment, as required by Kansas law. The Kansas Department on Aging, in cooperation with the Area Agencies on Aging provides CARE assessment services, which must be conducted by a qualified CARE assessor. A qualified assessor must attend the training session and have a bachelor's degree in gerontology, social work, counseling, human development, health, or other related area, or be a registered nurse licensed to practice in the state of Kansas.

The Northwest Kansas Area Agency on Aging and the Kansas Department on Aging coordinate and offer this training twice a year for the CARE program. There is no cost for the training and six C.E.U.'s are available.

For more information or to register by phone contact Dick Brown, CARE Coordinator, at 1-800-432-7422 or (785) 625-2037.

In honor of Women's History Month, The American Association of University Women (AAUW) will sponsor Writing Women: The Pen on the Plains by Joyce Suellentrop at 2 p.m. Sunday, March 17, at the Prairie Museum of Art and History. Suellentrop is a historian and archivist at Newman University. She talks about the women who served as daughter, wife, mother, and writer. In many communities, women wrote for town newspapers. Full of opinions, homespun humor and woman wisdom, these writers recorded the history of the people who settled and lived in their communities. The program is free and open to the public.

Hieberts Dulcimers Etc. will be performing for the Western Plains Arts Association at 3 p.m. March 17, at the high school auditorium in Quinter. Admission will be by WPAA season passes or tickets will be available at the door for adults $6 or students $3.

Rotary

President Brian Staats presided at the Feb. 19 meeting. Deanna Carmen was a guest. The treasurer's report was given by Nancy LePell. Bill Biel thanked members for their participation with the soup supper. Brian then presented certificate of appreciation to Paul Steele and George Weins as chief chefs.

Les Brown installed the two newest members Carol Rahn and Steve Ziegelmeier. Carol moved to Colby on Oct. 25. She grew up outside of New York City. The last 25 years she has lived in Atlanta. She said that moving to Colby was a big culture shock, but has been very pleased with the community. Carol is married and has one son. She is the minister at the Presbyterian Church.

Rahn

Ziegelmeier

Steve Ziegelmeier was born and raised in Thomas County. Steve is married and has four children. He taught in the Colby School for eight years; he now is a commodities broker and farms. Rotary is not new to Steve, when in high school he went to Rotary's International Leadership Program that was held in Manhattan. Steve was thankful for opportunity to participate in this Rotary event.

Carolyn Armstrong introduced Sean Hankins and L. Ellis with the Colby Fire Department. The department is reviewing an investigating thermal image camera. They showed videos on simulated fires on how the camera works. This device helps in locating victims and prevents further loss of property by finding the heat source.

High Plains Lions

High Plains Lions met for their last meeting in February. This meeting was scheduled as the District Governor's annual visit. Due to the Kansas blowing snow, the Governor postponed his visit until later.

President Lion Larry Koon called the meeting to order by introducing his guest Jay Kelley, prospective new member. Lion Virgil Jones led the group in the flag salute. Lion Darrel Follis addressed the group about a woman in the community who needs glasses. Several Lion members spoke about the up-coming event this summer.

The Prairie Heritage Day and the annual Rod and Car show have been combined. The event will be June 8. The Lions club want to be a part of the event. The club voted to have a food booth as they did last year. Lion Melda Moore will chair that event.

Lions Francis Britton and Mike Thompson discussed the contract with the Thomas County Fair Board. The 2002 county fair will have several changes including the parade on Saturday morning and the last day for release. The club agreed to support the board's new format.

Lion Lacey Gilbert received the Lions Posse Membership award for new members. Other announcements were: March 2 - Senior Progress pancake feed, and Gem Lions soup feed; March 12 - Zone meeting in Oakley at 6:30 p.m. Colonial Steak House. March 16-17 - the District Convention in Hays. Lion Melda and Lacey will be our voting delegates.

A short discussion of delegates to Boys and Girls state was held. The matter was tabled until Lion Bob Urbom could give the club more details.

The next meeting will be March 11.

Abilene Hustlers

The Abilene Hustlers 4-H Club was called to order by President Leanne Juenemann on March 4. Steve Bremenkamp led the club in saying the American flag salute. Roll call was answered by the number of family members that you had. Thirty-nine members were present. There were no guests. Michelle Bremenkamp gave a parliamentary tip, and Danielle Mazanec lead the club in singing God Bless America.

Peg Tole said that at least two families need to sign up to work at the recycling center at 1:15 on Saturdays. She also reported that the club will help with the Soil Conservation District's tree handout on April 6.

Nancy Rundel reported that the Shepherd's Staff arts and crafts group will meet in Thursdays in April in Rexford. You will not need to worry about transportation. For more information talk to Nancy Rundel.

Carrie Bredemeier reported that the dog club is selling suckers if anyone would like to buy some. Michelle Bremenkamp reported that there will be a "Bake and Take" day on March 21; meet in the 4-H building after school on that day.

There was a letter from the 4-H Foundation thanking us for our contribution. There was a letter from Lynette Koon that the Discovery Days Soil Conservation scholarship will be due March 8 instead of Feb. 8. Discovery days will be June 5-7.

It was announced if anyone would like to play chimes at County Club Days there is a sign up sheet on the back table. There was a door monitor sign-up sheet on the back table for those who would like to do that. The president asked for volunteers to do a demonstration, and a project talk at the model meeting for County Club Days. No one volunteered so people will be appointed for the task.

It was also discussed about having a party for Sue Draper since she will be leaving the club at the end of this 4-H year. It was also stated that parents and youth should check the updated project list for corrections. A new technology committee that will meet on Thursdays. There will be more information in the future. On March 22 there will be a training session for the county fair judges, there will be a $10 registration fee. Everybody needs to fill out their health forms and turn them into the Extension office.
