

Death

Myrna Fawn Ramsey

Myrna Fawn (Wade) Ramsey, 86, died Wednesday, May 8, 2002, at Prairie Senior Living Center, Colby. She was a retired licensed practical nurse and lifelong area resident.

Funeral services were Saturday at Harrison Chapel, Colby, Pastor Wade Hatfield officiating. Burial was in Beulah Cemetery, Colby.

Survivors include: son Victor of Norton; daughters Madeleine Moritz of El Paso, Texas, Myrna Broce of Olathe, Marilyn Kaus of Hoxie, Sharon Ramsey and Colleen Weaver, both of Colby; brother Gale Wade of Colby; sister Fern Mullen of Wichita, Madeleine Bond of Colby, Bonnie Whetstone of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and Glessner Roth of Tucson, Ariz.; 16 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Ivan in 1980; son H. Elgin in 1948, and son Danny in 1965.

Mrs. Ramsey was born May 24, 1915, at Rexford.

She was a member of the Colby Wesleyan Church, and Retired Senior Volunteer Program.

Pallbearers were Ben Ramsey, Wade Weaver, Steve Albers, Todd Daniel, Marvin Kaus, Kenny Erickson, Pat Ziegelmeier was organist, and Don Kready was soloist.

Donations may be made to Prairie Senior Living complex and may be left at any Colby bank or the Harrison Chapel.

Family had supper with friends

Roger and Marge Ausmus went to Sharon Springs on Sunday afternoon where they visited and had supper with Lawrence and Louise Denning. On Monday, they motored to Brewster to attend the school program and visit the Larry Werth family.

Pauline Smith accompanied Gerald and Betty Shipley of Oakley to Hays on Tuesday.

Jame and Kathy Koons, St. James, Mo., visited several days with Bob and Virginia Arnberger.

Rosalie Bussen has a new great-grandson. He is Colby Christopher Madsen, born Saturday, May 4, 2002. He weighed in at 6 lbs., 13 ozs. He is the son of Bryan and Brianna Madsen of Olathe. Colby has a brother, Dakota, and sister, Cayle, to welcome him home. His grandparents are Regina Madsen and Gary Madsen, formerly of Colby.

Rosalie Bussen returned home Wednesday afternoon after a five-day stay with her mother, Edith Wigington in Quinter, who was recovering from a serious illness.

Get-well wishes go to Virginia Arnberger. She was taken to Citizens Medical Center in Colby and later flown to Hays Medical Center. She received treatment for some heart problems. She has returned home to recuperate.

Mary Etta Malmgren, 91, died Sunday, May 5, 2002, at Delmar Gardens in Overland Park. She was born near Winona on Feb. 17, 1911. She taught school around the Winona area for 13 years. Her funeral service was Thursday, May 9, in the Florence United Methodist Church with burial in the Hillcrest Cemetery. Mary Etta was a sister of Dorothy Moulden of Winona and Henry Holsapple of Sharon Springs, Marcella Overholt of Brighton, Colo., and Floyd Holsapple of Aurora, Colo. Our sympathy to all.

Dog was under skylight in storm

The rains keep missing us, but by the same token, so do the bad storms. Roger and I got caught in a hail storm, in Hays, on Sunday evening. We were at Wal-mart, and we'd left Alli (our dog, for those that might not know), at our daughter's house. We called to see if all was well, and Beth said our grandkids were in a dither, because Allie was standing under a skylight that had just been broken, by large hail. Allie was just standing in a trance, more curious about the hollering than the noise of the storm. All ended well, but that's the biggest hail I've ever seen!

The City Wide Garage Sale is Saturday, June 1, so don't forget to sign up for a spot, either at Gloria's Beauty Shop or the Brewster Senior Center. You don't have to be a local citizen to have a sale, and I believe there will be areas where you can sit up. And if you don't have anything to sell, then there will be plenty of things for you to look at, to buy. Remember, mark Saturday, June 1, on your calendar, and be ready to go at 8:30 a.m. See you!

Willard Moore was walking tall while he had Maxine home for a few days this week. She is doing very good, and maybe one of these days, she will be back home on a regular basis. She was able to attend the potluck at the Senior Center on Wednesday and also, the supper that the Rebekahs enjoyed at Bubba's on Thursday evening. It's good to have you feeling better, Maxine.

I have been giving the hours for the Heritage Center (1-4 p.m. on Monday/Wednesday and 9-11 a.m. on Saturday), but don't think I've given the hours for the Senior Center, lately. Our hours are 10 a.m. noon and 2-5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Each Wednesday, we have a potluck lunch, which is always a "meal fit for a king!" Inace Parker has the center open each Monday, and I have it open Tuesday through Friday. The Senior Center is for the benefit of those 55 and older, but everyone is welcome to come in and get acquainted. Actually, we would enjoy knowing all our neighbors, young and old, and if you want to know about the heartbeat of a town, the Senior Center is probably one of the best places to start.

Eagle award

MAXINE NELSON/Colby Free Press

Steve Alwin, left, presents the Eagle badge to Troy Bielser at his Eagle Court of Honor Saturday at the Presbyterian Church. Troy's parents, Shelli and Roy Bielser, look on. Troy is a member of Boy Scout Troop 141 and Alwin was his scoutmaster during much of his scouting career. The Eagle award, Scouting's highest honor, is earned by only 4 percent of boys who join Cub Scouts, according to Boy Scouts of America statistics.
