Brewster 4-H club fares well

By TIMOTHY KNOX

4-H Reporter

What do 29 Red, 160 Blue, 58 Purple, 20 Reserve Champion, and 28 Grand Champion ribbons mean to 30 members of the Brewster Prairie Gem 4-H Club? An eventful Thomas County Fair as they exhibited in at least 21 different projects!

Members had steers, heifers, bucket calves, pigs, and lambs in the livestock barns. Most of the members with livestock also entered showmanship. In the 4-H building members had entries in the following categories: entomology, notebooks, gardening, wheat display, foods and nutrition, geology, arts and crafts, clothing, woodworking, mini booths, photography, welding, and posters. Small animals included dogs, rabbits, chickens and a guinea pig.

Twenty-two members received at least one reserve or grand champion ribbon. Those receiving champion ribbons and the projects were: Abbie Allen - (Reserve Champion) dog obedience and (Reserve Champion) dog showmanship; Andrie Baird - (Reserve Champion) fashion revue; Melissa Baird - (Grand Champion) project computer notebook, and (Grand Champion) bucket calf; Rose Bear - (Grand Champion) clothing construction, (Reserve Champion) fashion revue, and (Grand Champion) yearling breeding heifer; Quentin Bear - (Grand Champion) welding, (Grand Champion) wheat test plot, and (Reserve Champion) woodworking; Lizzy Bolz - (Grand Champion) intermediate sheep showman and (Grand Champion) intermediate round robin showmanship; Sadie Bolz - (Reserve Champion) novice sheep showmanship and (Grand Champion) novice beef and swine showmanship; Emily Carney - (Grand Champion) junior sheep and swine showmanship, (Reserve Champion) junior round robin showmanship, and (Grand Champion) entomology; Scott Carney - (Grand Champion) woodworking; Amy Carpenter - (Grand Champion) intermediate beef

(Listing of the individual ribbons was not easy and I apologize to any fellow member if I have made errors.)

The club booth was designed and constructed by the Mike Schultz and Wayne Carpenter families. Their efforts provided the club with a reserve champion ribbon.

Timothy Knox entered the club reporter notebook that received a purple ribbon.

The historians - Megan Fulwider, Stefanie, Eicher, and Abbie Allen - put together a club book and it was judged reserve champion.

Submitted by: Timothy Knox, reporter for Brewster Prairie Gem 4-H.
