A farewell picnic was held in the Rexford Park last Saturday evening, Aug. 24, honoring Margaret (Peg) Greenwood, who is moving to Arvada, Colo. this week.

It was an almost perfect evening, weather wise, fairly cool with no wind and dust. A good-sized crowd of over 60 attended. Pastor Taylor gave the invocation after which everyone filled their plates from the long tables loaded with food. A platform had been set up and Duane Cheney, the Master of Ceremonies, assisted Peg to a chair, he then placed a crown on her head. He read an account of Peg's accomplishments with others bringing her "gag" gifts as the story unfolded. Everyone had been given a noise maker to use after each presentation. A big sign labeled QUIET or NOISE controlled that part. Her gifts included a big key from Mayor Bill Dible that would open any house in town; a plaque from the Legion, a water gun from the fire department; a toilet seat like the one she

Abilene Hustlers 4-H Club hold September meeting

By JOHN TOLE

4-H Reporter

The regular monthly meeting of the Abilene Hustlers 4-H club was called to order by President Leann Juenemann on Sept. 2, 2002, at 7:07 p.m. at the 4-H building.

Katie Strange lead the club in saying the American Flag Salute. Thirty-five members answered roll call with "what grade you're in."

Guests for the evening were Chelle Shoemaker, Tucker Gerstner, Tate Herron, Marc Bremenkamp, and Colton Rundel. Erika Erickson gave the parliamentarian tip. Baily Herron lead the club in singing "Do Your Ears Hang Low.'

In old business Emily Strange announced that Grandparents Day would be on Sept. 11, at the Senior Progress Center.

For new business Peg Tole announced that the club needed to decide whether or not they wanted to work at the recycling center for the coming year. The club voted and decided that they would work at the recycling center on the second weekend of the month.

Elaine Bremenkamp announced on Hustlers 4-H Club.

Kiwanis, Student Union, noon

Sept. 15, the program books will be put together at the 4-H building. The club also voted to pay registration fees for four people going to a conference in Rock Springs on Sept. 28 and 29. It was also decided that the November meeting would be a potluck supper, and that the December meeting would be a soup supper.

Officers were elected for the following year. The 2002-2003 year officers are: President, Michelle Bremenkamp; Vice President, Christy Gerstner; Secretary, Henry Lamm; Treasurer, John Tole; Reporter, Kellie Gerstner; Council Representatives are Nathan Harter, and Lindsey Schafer; Historians, Case Rundel and Lindsey Jarnagin. The Junior officers, Jr. President, Rachel Lamm; Jr. Vice President, Kimmy Gerstner; Jr. Secretary, Katie Strange; Jr. Historians, Kelsey Shields, Baily Herron, and Danielle Maznec; there were no Jr. Reporter candidates.

Brady Rundel lead the club in playing Red Rover. After the meeting was adjourned the Juenumann family served watermelon. The next meeting will be on Oct. 7, at 7 p.m.

played in the Red Barn Band and several other gag gifts.

She was given a memory book of pictures of her many activities here. A well-filled money tree was presented to her as well. In closing, each one gave her a little wooden peg with his name on it and a big hug.

Peg came to Rexford eleven years ago to visit some friend. She liked what she saw here and decided to stay. We are glad she did.

On Sunday evening of Aug. 25, the Rexford Lions and the Golden Plains Booster Club sponsored a barbecue in the park to welcome the teachers and other school personnel back to school. Over 160 attended for a time of refreshments and fellowship. This is the largest attendance we've had for the barbecue. Twelve people attended the pinochle party at the Barn Monday afternoon. Zula Horinek brought a delicious cake to be served with ice cream honoring those with birthdays in August.

The Missionary meeting was held at the church on Tuesday afternoon with five attending. Bible verses beginning with "B" were given for roll call.

water, 2/3 cup sugar, tapioca and spices in large saucepan. Stir in apples. Cook on medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to full boil. Pour into 3 quart casserole dish. Sprinkle with 1/2 cup of the cheese. TOPPING:

3/4 cup flour

2 tablespoons sugar

- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/8 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 stick margarine, cut into small bits
- (Remaining 1/2 cup cheese)
- 3 tablespoons milk

Mix dry ingredients in large bowl. Cut in margarine until mixture resembles course crumbs. Stir in remaining 1/2 cup cheese and milk until mixture forms soft dough. Drop by 1/4 cupfuls onto hot apple mixture. Bake 25 minutes or until biscuits are golden brown. Serve warm with whipped topping or ice cream. Makes 8-10 servings.
