Happenings

Anyone who is interested in post polio syndrome is invited to a meeting at 3 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 22, at Pioneer Memorial Library. A video on Recent Advances in Treating Post Polio Syndrome by Dr. Susan Perlman, UCLS Post Polio Clinic, will be shown. The video is of Dr. Perlman's presentation at the Post Polio Symposium in San Diego on June 23, 2002.
Anyone who had polio, or even what was diagnosed as a bad case of flu, and who is experiencing fatigue, unexplained weakness, depression, as are those who have fibromyalgia and other

Brewster celebrates birthdays galore in the month of September

There are birthdays galore in September and if we can't have rain showers, maybe we can cheer someone up with a card shower. I'm an optimist and believe we can have both!

The family of Helen Jones wants her friends to know there will be a 90th birthday party for her on Sunday, Sept. 22, from 10 a.m. til 2 p.m. (MDT) at the Blue Room of the ELKs Club in Goodland. Be sure to stop and wish this lady a happy birthday.

The family of Frances Jones would like to have a card shower for her, as she celebrates her 80th birthday, while recuperating from hip surgery. She is now at her daughters home and cards will reach her by sending them to: Frances Jones, Care of Charlie Webb, 1062 Arcadia, Wichita, Kan., 67212. Her birthday is Sept. 13, so be sure to hurry.

Speaking of birthdays, there is a brand new member of the Musil family and his aunt, Tina Hansen, was quite excited about meeting him. Brandon Eugene Musil, son of Shaun and Heather Musil, was born in Hays on Sept. 3.

Besides his aunt Tina, he will likely be spoiled by grandparents: Melvin related illnesses are invited.

For those interested in learning how to square dance, the Golden Buckle Square Dance Club is offering lessons.

Although they have already had the first lesson, all are welcome to attend the second session which will be Tuesday, Sept. 17, at the Colby Community Building. A third session will be held on Sept. 24. Ron Snyder of Colby is the instructor.

The first three lessons are free, so grab your partner and join us for friends, fun and good exercise.

Arbor Day Foundation gives free trees

Ten free trees will be given to each person who joins the National Arbor Day Foundation during September 2002.

The free trees are a part of the non-profit Foundation's Trees for America campaign.

The ten trees are the American Redbud, White Pine, Sugar Maple, White Flowering Dogwood, Pin Oak, Red Maple, Birch, Silver Maple, Red Oak and Colorado Blue Spruce.

"These trees were selected to provide benefits every season of the year: lovely spring flowers, cool summer shade, spectacular autumn colors, and winter berries and nesting sites for songbirds," John Rosenow, the Foundation's president, said.

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting between Oct. 15 and Dec. 10, with enclosed planting instructions.

The six to twelve inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

Members also receive a subscription to the Foundation's colorful bimonthly publication, Arbor Day, and The Tree Book with information about tree planting and care.

To receive the free trees, send a $10 membership contribution to TEN TREES, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, Neb., 68410, by Sept. 20, 2002.

and Dorothy Musil of Edson and Dr. Cliff and Mary Porterfield of Goodland. Congratulations on this baby boy!

It seems that with the good news, we always have to temper things with sad news, and Brewster lost two former graduates this past week. We extend sympathy to the families of these young men. Donald Parsons, Brewster graduate of 1952, passed away after a long illness in Northglenn, Colo. on Aug. 31. He was the son of the late Hugh and Theda Parsons.

Another Brewster graduate, Brent Selby, from the class of 1980, passed away from diabetes complications, in San Pedro, Calif. in late Aug. Brent was the son of Bill and Eva Lou Selby. Arrangements for his service will be announced at a later date.

As I said, our thoughts and prayers are with the families that have lost their loved ones.

Stopped by the Heritage Center this morning and had a nice visit with Betty

FINAL HARVEST
He was bound to the land from the day of his birth; his roots anchored deep in the fertile earth.
Nurtured, sustained, by the soil he grew and in his life, like his furrows, ran straight and true.
In faith, each spring, he planted the seeds - in hope, to reap his family's needs. With patience, he waited for the harvest to come to gather the fruits of his labor home.
Ever turning seasons, the years sped past till the final harvest came at last. Then claimed anew by beloved sod, he was gathered home to be with God.

Wolfe. She was sorting through a large assortment of monkey wrenches and other tools that have been donated in recent days.

There is much cataloging and sorting that she painstakingly does before she is satisfied that the display is ready to be shown.

She shared a news item from the Sept. 15, 1032, Brewster Herald. It stated that the Brewster Wheat Belt League Baseball team won the Little World Series and the Silver cup in the Wheat Belt League. Brewster emerged victorious after games with Levant and Ruleton.

The Levant game was a playoff after being locked in a tie, and Brewster came out victorious. The team members were Roy McCall, Lawrence Winchip, Fred Henshaw, Roy Neff, Floyd Emel, Kenneth Coffey, Bill Harrington, Fay Staley, Harry Kear, Ray Emel, Myron Cummings, Chuck Coffey, Ted Touslee, and a fellow named Peek.

The second team, called the Cubs, included Homer Elliot, Bill Parker, Loren Mallory, Lorraine Coffey, Raymond Allen, George Coffey, Harry Wilson, Everett "Phog" Allen, Harold Webber, Ray Shirley and Martin Isernhagen.

Harry Kear of Brownville and "Phog" Allen of Brewster, both having passed their 43rd birthdays during the month, declared themselves to be the two oldest players in Northwest Kansas.

That was 70 years ago, but Betty wondered if anyone has pictures of these ball players in the albums or boxes of pictures stored in their closets. She would love to display them at the Heritage Center.

That's it for this week in the present time of 2002. The wind is blowing, the dirt is sifting through to the windowsills, but there is rain in the forecast. Next time I write, I hope to have some healthy rain totals to share with you, and I know you all hope the same thing.

Don't forget to wear read, white and blue on the 11th. Hard to believe it has been a year, isn't it!?!

A salute to those who brought us the news.

On Sept. 11, Kansas newspapers responded to that day's terrible events by doing what they do best — providing substantive and accurate reporting; offering thoughtful and articulate commentary; and presenting powerful and dramatic images.

Throughout Kansas, newspapers of all sizes, from the smallest weeklies to the biggest dailies, told the story through words and pictures, documenting for all time the magnitude and historical significance of these dramatic events.

On the anniversary of Sept. 11, we salute Kansas newspapers and the dedicated professionals who work every day to keep their communities, the state and the nation informed.

Sept. 11 Tribute Books
Kansas Press Association has limited copies of its "Coverage of the Sept. 11 Attacks" tribute book. This 85-page, spiral-bound book contains black-and-white reproductions of front pages and commentaries compiled from more than 50 Kansas newspapers during the week of Sept. 11.

To order your copy, send $6 with your name and mailing address to: KPA, 5423 SW 7th, Topeka, KS 66606 or call (785) 271-5304.
