Brewster Prairie Gem 4-H elects officers for 2002-2003

Brewster Prairie Gem 4-H

The main business at the Sept. 9, meeting for the members of the Brewster Prairie Gem 4-H Club was election of officers for the 2002-2003 year. The election followed the usual business portion of the meeting.

President Erin Carney called the meeting to order with the flag salute led by Melissa Baird. Whitney Schultz and Sadie Bolz led members in singing "My Country 'Tis of Thee". Nineteen members answered roll call by telling their height.

Officer and committee reports were presented. Members were reminded that completed 4-H books are due to leaders Oct. 7. The Nov. 23 date for the Achievement Banquet was announced.

The following are the results of the election of officers by the club members. Future meetings will be led by President Erin Carney and Vice-President Megan Fulwider. Keeping the club records as secretary will be Avery Schultz and Andrew Starns will be the treasurer. Timothy Knox will serve as the club reporter for the third year.

Council Representatives are Erin and Scott Carney with Quentin Bear and Andrie Baird serving as alternates to attend the county meetings.

Parliamentarians will be Michael Eicher and Andrie Baird. Members elected as historians for the year are Emily Carney, Baylee Westover, Stefanie Eicher, and Wyatt Tover. Serving as song leaders will be Whitney Schultz, Rose Bear, Sadie Bolz, and Kasey Hoyt. Recreation leaders for the year will be assigned from those members not already elected to an office.

The program for the evening began with a swine project talk given by Kasey Hoyt. Her topic was "Where to Purchase a 4-H Pig." Audrey Hoyt demonstrated a method for making hair bands during her presentation titled "How to Put Spunk into Your Ponytail!" For music appreciation, Wyatt Werth played a tape of "When the World Stopped Turning" by Alan Jackson. This music was very appropriate as it is based upon the happenings of 9-11.

The meeting closed with members saying the 4-H pledge led by Scott Carney.

Knox is the reporter for the Brewster Prairie Gem 4-H Club.

Rotary

On Sept. 3, 2002, President Les Brown presided over the Colby Rotary Club. The club met at City Limits and brought their Ann's and Andy's. Treasurer Nancy LePell and Secretary Scott Gawith gave brief reports.

Rotary Moment in history was the duties of the District Governor. The duties include offering motivation, inspiration, Rotary information on new Rotary Clubs, and ideas for new club officers. They also bring information on Rotary International projects and how new programs work. A District Governor is a person that generously devotes a full year to the volunteer task of leadership. Traveling to about 45 clubs in their district to help club officers learn Rotary Programs, policies and goals. These people are recognized for their high standards in his or her profession, community and Rotary club. District Governors, help to maintain "quality control" for more than 29,000

Clubs

Rotary Clubs in the world. Each District Governor helps maintain high performance within the clubs district.

Les Loker was then inducted as District Governor by Les Brown and Brian Staats. Les was introduced to the Colby Rotary Club by Larry Berg who has just recently resigned to move to Hays.

Mrs. Ingaborg Teasley then spoke on her role as the District Governor's Partner. She expressed what it means to be involved with District Governor not only as his wife but his Rotary partner. She not only becomes involved with Rotary Club members but with all the Rotary Communities in the district.

Learning what different communities have in common and different needs within in the community. Inga enjoys traveling with her husband very much.

District Governor Mack Teasley recognized Rotarian Wayne Horlacher for the outstanding job he has done for the Rotary international Polio Eradication Issue in the district.

Mack spoke highly of the Rotary International President, Bhichai Rattakul. Mack said Bhichai is a kind and humble person. Mack and Inga had meet him at the International Convention this past year.

During this past year Rotarians all over the world are to feeling even a greater sense of urgency and purpose. Mack thought Bhichai is indeed the right President for this time in Rotary International history, with the theme of "Sow the Seeds of Love."

The latest program that Rotary International has brought forth is the Rotary Center International Studies on Peace and Conflict Resolution. Every year this program sends at least 70 people out into the world to serve peace and help mankind. Last year there were 1300 application. The power of Rotary can helps break down barriers, foster friendships, and provide for the less fortunate. Rotary's only goal is to serve mankind and provide for the less fortunate Mack said.

Mack wishes that Rotarians experience Rotary beyond their own club by participating in Rotary Convention or visiting neighboring Rotary Clubs. He then reminded Colby Rotary Club of next years convention that will be held at Abilene, the first weekend in May.

President Les Brown thanked the Club service committee Mike Tubbs, Nancy LePell and Barrie Sauther, who organized the meeting at City Limits. Les's quote for the day was "But a Different World cannot be Built by Indifferent People."
