Deaths

Gerald “Jerry” Feldt

Gerald “Jerry” Feldt, 50, of Grainfield, died at his home on Thursday, Sept. 19, 2002.

Services will be at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at the Sacred Heart Church in Park. Father Mark Berland will officiate and burial will follow at the Sacred Heart Church Cemetery in Park.

Visitation will be today from 5 to 9 p.m. at the church with a wake at 7:30 p.m.

Memorials can be made to the Sacred Heart Church Cemetery or the American Diabetes Foundation.

Arrangements are being handled by the Kennedy-Koster Funeral Home in Oakley.

Albert “Red” Campbell

Albert “Red” Campbell, 81, of Selden, died Saturday, Sept. 21, 2002, at the Decatur County Hospital in Oberlin.

Services were held today at 11 a.m. at the Selden United Methodist Church. Pastor Russell Fincham officiated.

Burial followed at the Selden Cemetery with military rites.

Mr. Campbell is survived by his wife, Elda of Selden; daughters Shirley Weber of Colby, Charlene Werth of Park, Deanna Effington of Gardner, Janice Kruse of Selden, and Kathy Rains of Hoxie; and sisters Evelyn Ross of Excelsior Springs, Mo. and Rosie Frye of California. He is survived as well by 12 grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Melvin and Rose (Zimmerman) Campbell; three brothers and three sisters.

Mr. Campbell was a member of the United Methodist Church and the Lions Club, both of Selden, and served in the Army during World War II.

Memorials may be made in his name to the Selden United Methodist Church or the Lions Club of Selden.

Services were arranged by Pauls Funeral Home of Oberlin.

Virginia A. “Tootie” Chatfield

Virginia A. “Tootie” Chatfield, 73, of Goodland died Saturday, Sept. 21, 2002, at her home in Goodland.

Services will be Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. (MDT), at the First United Methodist Church in Goodland. Rev. Janet Hernandez will officiate. Burial will follow in the Goodland Cemetery.

Visitation will be today from 3 to 7 p.m. (MDT) and at the church before the service on Tuesday.

She is survived by daughters, Karen Vandiver of Goodland and Kathy Elliot of Colby; a son, Lyle Chatfield of Goodland; five grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and three sisters, Arbutus Topliff of Goodland, Alberta Tagtmeyer of Colorado; and Betty Nondorf of Atwood.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Alice (Lechron) and Albert Dautel; her husband Eddie Dean Chatfield; two brothers, Charles and Kenneth Dautel; and a sister, Ruth Berringer.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church, Lincoln Larks FCE, and VFW Auxiliary.

Memorials may be given to Smoky Gardens or the Sherman County Fair Board, and may be left at Koons Funeral Home, 211 North Main, in Goodland.

Clubs start up meetings again for fall

Sorosis Club

The Sorosis Club of Colby held their Sept. 13, meeting at the home of Lee Fleckenstein at 9:30 a.m. and enjoyed a brunch. This was the first meeting since May and roll call was answered by sharing a summer memory.

During the business meeting the Book Fair work schedule was passed around and the dates of Sept. 23 and 24 noted. Donna Pflasterer will be coordinating the work times and notifying the members. Letters of thanks were read from several organizations who had received donations from the Sorosis Club.

The guest speaker was Dick Parnell, representing the Thomas County Amusement Association. He told of the goals of the organization which is to provide a safe and family oriented carnival for the people of Thomas county and the surrounding communities. He discussed the rides they want to provide, the cost, both new and used, the volunteer help they have been promised by groups and technicians, capable of keeping the rides operating.

Their goal is to have a basic number of rides operating by July 4 of 2003. Both monetary donations are needed as are names of those willing to volunteer time and expertise to the project. Information is available from members of the executive board or from Dick Parnell.

The meeting closed with a Salute to the Flag of the United States of America and a tribute to the greatness of America following the one year anniversary of Sept. 11.

Shakespeare Club

On Friday, Sept. 13, GFWC Shakespeare Club met at the home of Lois Starns. The meeting was called to order by the Vice-President, Delores Ary. Ten members answered roll call by telling a fact about Shakespeare or about Shakespeare Club.

The minutes were approved as read. In the absence of the Treasurer, no treasurer's report was given.

Several items of interest were read in correspondence. A letter from State GFWC President, Vera Lungren, congratulated Shakespeare Club for receiving a purple on their yearbook. A letter commending Shakespeare Club for turning in the 2002-2003 yearbook was from Sixth District President, Nevada Vetter. She announced the Sixth District Convention on Sept. 20-21.

A thank you letter from Lois Van Horn was read. Phyllis Elliott, HOBY Chairman, read a thank you letter from the HOBY organization and a correction concerning the amount of money sent in by Shakespeare Club. Three letters from HOBY participants have been received, one each from students from Colby, Brewster and Rexford. Phyllis read the one from Josh Cox, Colby, the delegate to HOBY who was supported by Shakespeare Club.

Delores announced that the next meeting will be Friday, Sept. 27 at Helen Frahm's house. The program “Natural Resources” will be given by Sheila Frahm.

Delores also thanked Lois Starns for being hostess and co-hostess for this meeting. Members signed a card to be sent to Vic and Alice Oelke. The meeting was adjourned. For the program, Delores Ary gave a presentation on Shakespeare Country, England. Following the program, the hostess served dessert.

Rotary

On Sept. 10, Vice President Jerry Arensdorf presided over the Colby Rotary Club. Guests were Rotarian John Aten from Goodland and Blake Arberger, a prospective member.

Secretary Scott Gawith gave his usual weather report and reported 62 percent attendance for the previous meeting. Treasurer Nancy LePell gave an update on the treasurer's report. Scott announced that the Community Service Committee will be meeting Sept. 17 at 11:30 a.m. at the Colby Community College. Membership team names are due for next weeks meeting.

Rotary History for the week: in Rotary Clubs through out the world, wives of male Rotary club members are called “Rotary Anns”. This is due to early days when San Francisco Rotarians went to Houston Texas to a Rotary Convention.

In early days few wives attended Rotary events. This changed when the train stopped in Los Angeles on the trip. The wife of Rotarian Bru Brunnier, the only woman aboard, was Mrs. Ann Brunnier. As more Rotarians boarded the train she was introduced as Rotarian's Ann. This title soon became “Rotary Ann”.

The following year the next Rotary Convention was held in San Francisco, a number of songs and chants were performed in Houston. A Rotarian wrote an Ann Chant. On the trains arrival in Houston a delegation greeted the west coast arrivals. One of the greeters was Guy Gundaker of Philadelphia, whose wife was also named Ann. During the arrival someone started the Ann Chant. The two Ladies were then lift to the Rotarians shoulders and paraded down the hall. The Rotarians liked the term of endearment and that is why the name “Rotary Ann”.

Grant makes counseling money available

Elaine Ptacek with Heartland Rural Counseling Services was awarded a $15,000 grant from the Texas Garvey Foundation to provide scholarships for low income families needing counseling services.

A $10,000 grant was given to the Endowment Fund and $5,000 was given for direct services to low income families meeting the income guidelines.

In 1998, Heartland Rural Counseling Services saw 12 clients and had one therapist. In 2001, Heartland Rural Counseling Services provided services to 58 children and 55 adults.

Today, they have two children and adolescent therapists, one adult therapist who also does diagnostic testing, one CDAC therapist and one Social Worker doing Home Studies.

In 2001, 69 percent of the children

seen in Heartland Rural Counseling Services were abused or neglected and of that total, 40 percent were sexually abused.

Heartland Rural Counseling Services works closely with many of the Social Services agencies in Northwest Kansas and continues to look for alternative funding to assist low income families in Northwest Kansas with mental health services.

State Regent makes a visit

DARREL PATTILLO/Colby Free Press

Daughters of the American Revolution met on Saturday at the Colby Ramada Inn as they were visited by Pat Carpenter, State Regent from Topeka. Carpenter visits all the 64 chapters in Kansas during her three year term. Her theme for her term is “God, Home and Country.” During her visit to Colby, she addressed the chapter about, “Madonna Trails.” Pictured above from left to right are: Florine Hurst, EvaLee Wheeler, Irene Cressler, Pat Carpenter, and Judy Watkins.
