Clubs

GFWC Shakespeare Club

GFWC Shakespeare Club met at the home of Helen Frahm on Friday, Sept. 27, 2002.

The meeting was called to order by President, Kathy Calliham. Twelve members answered roll call by telling an important natural resource.

A thank you note from Kids Port was read thanking Shakespeare Club for our gifts to Kids Port.

A get-well card was signed by members for Patty Decker who had surgery recently.

Phyllis Elliott reported that Josh Cox, the HOBY delegate sponsored by the Shakespeare Club be giving the Shakespeare Club program at the Oct. 11, meeting.

Amie Kendrick reported on the fall thrash pick-up. The tentative date of Oct. 9, was selected.

Kathy thanked Helen for hosting the meeting and Deanna for assisting. Next meeting will be at Ruth Lowenthal's on Oct. 11, 2002, with Clara Barrett as the co-hostess. The meeting adjourned.

For the program, Shelia Frahm gave a very interesting and informative talk on natural resources.

Following the program, Deanna served a delicious lemon-layered dessert.

Daughters of the American Revolution

Sept. 21, 2002, the John Athey Chapter NSDAR met at the Ramada Inn in Colby at 10 a.m. Irene Cressler, Regent, opened the meeting in ritualistic form. Judith Watkins gave the President General's Report and Gladys Rowley gave National Defense.

Roll call was answered with introducing yourself to Patricia Carpenter, State Regent, our guest.

Guests for the meeting included Sharee Fromholtz, Lillian Martin, Marguerite Walz, and Harry Carpenter.

Florine Hurst gave the treasurers reports and the minutes of the last meeting were read by Eva Lee Wheeler. They were approved as read.

Regent, Irene Cressler, presented the State Regent with a money corsage. Patricia gave us an account of the National Meeting that she attended in Washington D.C. on July 4, to celebrate our nations 226th birthday.

Patricia was privileged to carry the Kansas Flag down Constitution Avenue in the Independence Day Parade and gave us an interesting account, with pictures of the "Madonna of the Trails" through Kansas.

The next meeting will be in Quinter at the Q Inn on Oct. 19 at 10 a.m. Hoxie members will be the hostesses.

Oakley Range Riders Saddle Club does well at State

Members of the Oakley Range Riders Saddle Club competed at the State Kansas Western Horsemanship Association Horse Show in Garden City on Aug. 31 and Sept. 1. For some of the riders it was their first state competition and for others it was one of many. However, it was the first time that Oakley Range Riders came home with the Junior and Senior Queen titles. The titles were won by cousins, Lisa and Danielle Jones, both of Colby. Lisa also won all-around second runner up in the 14-17 division.

Lisa, daughter of Leland and Sally Jones won Junior Queen in the 17 and under age group with Jade Kruse, daughter of Marshall and Julie Rhea of Oakley placing second runner-up. Danielle, daughter of Mike and Sheila Jones won Senior Queen in the 18 and over age group. The girls were presented roses and carried the Kansas and American flags during the Grand Entry on Sunday.

All members had to earn a total of four points in each event to qualify for competition at the state level. These points were earned by competing at various saddle club horse shows throughout the summer. Oakley Range Riders had 11 members qualifying in several events with nine members competing in Garden City.

In the 1-9 year-old division, Jade Kruse placed in eight events and qualified in every event offered to her age group. She received third in Junior Queen, first in Cloverleaf Barrels, second in Pole Bending, third in Flag Race, fourth in Polo Turn, fourth in Flying W, second in Figure Eight Stake Race, and fourth in Speed Barrels. She also competed in Bareback Horsemanship, Key Race, Half Eight Race, Keg Bending, and Straight Barrels.

three events after qualifying in 13. Jance received first in Horsemanship, second in Junior Bareback Horsemanship, and third in Figure Eight Stake Race. He also competed in Speed Barrels, Polo Turn, Flying W, Cloverleaf Barrels, Key Race, Half Eight Race, Pole Bending, Keg Bending, Flag Race, and Straight Barrels. Jance is also the son of Marshall and Julie Rhea of Oakley.

Also qualifying for the state level in Cloverleaf Barrels in the 10-13 division was Jade Inlow. Qualifying in Cloverleaf Barrels, Flying W and Pole Bending was Brooke Inlow. Both girls are daughters of Ty and Donna Inlow of Oakley, and were unable to attend the show.

Competing in the 14-17 year-old division were Jody Kruse, son of Marshall and Julie Rhea, Matt Hutfles, son of Ron and Dena Hutfles of Colby, Nichole Keenan, daughter of Jim and Letitia Keenan of Oakley, and Lisa Jones.

Jody and his horse, Flicka, placed third in Horsemanship, and qualified in Bareback Horsemanship, Junior Reining, Speed Barrels, Polo Turn, Flying W, Cloverleaf Barrels, Key Race, Half Eight Race, Figure Eight Stake Race, Pole Bending, Keg Bending, Flag Race, and Straight Barrels.

Matt and his horse, Kale, placed second in Key Race, second in Pole Bending, third in Figure Eight Stake Race and also qualified in Horsemanship, Polo Turn, Cloverleaf Barrels, Keg Bending, and Flag Race.

Nichole and her horse, Magic Red Bud, placed second in Horsemanship, fourth in Pole Bending, and qualified in Bareback Horsemanship, Flying W, Cloverleaf Barrels, Key Race, and Figure Eight Stake Race.

Lisa and her horse, Missy, placed first in Junior Queen, first in Horsemanship, first in Junior Reining, first in Cloverleaf Barrels, third, in Key Race, fourth in Bareback Horsemanship, second in Speed Barrels, second in Flying W, and also qualified in Barrel and Stake, Polo Turn, Pole Bending, Keg Bending, Flag Race and Straight Barrels.

Competing in the women's division, Penny Nemecheck of Goodland and her horse, Doc, qualified in Cloverleaf Barrels and on her horse, Shorty they competed in Pole Bending. Jill Dieges of Montezuma and her horse, Bonnie, competed in Cloverleaf Barrels, Pole Bending and Figure Eight Stake Race.

Also competing in the women's division were Ashley Jones and Danielle Jones, Both of Colby. Ashley and her horse, Zip, placed third in Western Pleasure and qualified in Cloverleaf Barrels.

Danielle and her horse, Koby, placed first in Senior Queen and first in Western Pleasure. She and her horse, Skeeter Duff, placed first in Reining Women. She also qualified in Cloverleaf Barrels, Figure Eight Stake Race, Pole Bending, Keg Bending, and Flag Race.

The weather was perfect and the riders felt good about their placings at the state level. All agreed it was a fun and eventful horse show and want to encourage other area riders to join their saddle club next year.
