GFWC Shakespeare Club

The GFWC Shakespeare Club met on Friday, Oct. 11, at the home of Ruth Lowenthal. The meeting was called to order by the President, Kathy Calliham. Roll call was answered by 12 members.

The member answered roll call by telling of an honor each had in school. The minutes were approved as read. As the treasurer was absent, no treasurer's report was given.

For correspondence, Kathy showed a handbook she had received from the Sixth District President, Nevada Vetter.

In unfinished business, Amie Kendrick announced that the trash pickup date would be Monday, Oct. 14, at 1:30 p.m. Shakespeare Club members will pick up trash with the members of Pi Gamma. Members will meet at the east part of the parking lot of Heartland School.

In new business, Kathy referred to the handbook sent by Mrs. Vetter about the Sixth District "Make a difference day." Each club is asked to participate in a "read to children" day as described by President Bush.

Shakespeare club members will participate with the members of Pi Gamma on Saturday, Oct. 26. Ruth Lowenthal made the motion to participate in this activity. It was seconded and carried.

Joyce Hansen was appointed to look for a book in memory of Miriam Beck. The president thanked Ruth for hosting the meeting and Clara Barrett for being co-hostess.

The next meeting will be at Inlow Interiors on Friday, Oct. 25, 2002. Jane Bandy and Patty Decker will be co-hostesses. The program will be "Designs and Plans for Decorating your Home" by Inlow Interior Consultants.

Phyllis Elliott, HOBY chairman introduced the 2002 HOBY participant, Josh Cox, from Colby High School.

Josh said that the HOBY program was started by Hugh O'Brian after making a trip to Africa and observing the humanitarian programs being initiated there. He then developed the HOBY program to develop leadership among the young people of America. To date, 14,000 students have participated in this leadership program. Josh attended the leadership seminar for the north part of Kansas. It was held on the campus of Kansas State University. About 150 high school students participated in the seminar.

Josh said the purpose of the seminar is to help young people develop leadership skills. This was done through activities with other participants such as leadership skill building, listening to speakers, games that promote teamwork and small group problem solving. They also did paper and pencil activities to learn their own strengths.

To become a participant, Josh wrote a paper, "What Does Leadership Mean to You." This essay was required for the application.

Josh answered questions from the members about the seminar as well as information about his own goals.

Brewster city park greens up with sod make-over

We had bare ground in the park on Wednesday morning, but by afternoon, we had pretty green grass. It looks very good and I am certain many of us will enjoy the nice grass and recreational area. A big thank you to all who helped things green up.

Homecoming will soon be here, like tomorrow, and thins are getting a little active. There will be a pep rally in front of the Senior Center, tomorrow afternoon, so I am hoping there will be lots to cheer the teams to V-I-C-T-O-R-Y! That's okay, I never did make cheer-
