School band have recently been chosen for the Kansas Music Educators Association Northwest District Honor

The northwest District covers the state of Kansas from the Colorado border along Interstate 70 as far west as Ellsworth and then north through Beloit to the Nebraska border.

All students interested in being members of the Honor Jazz Band must submit a taped audition for consideration. A panel of Northwest District educators then listen to all the tapes and choose a Jazz Band consisting of five saxophones (two altos, two tenors and one baritone), five trumpets, five trombones, two pianists, two drummers, two bass players and two guitarists.

This year's Honor Jazz Band in-Eight members of the Colby High cludes: includes Alex Marshall, alto sax; Josh Cox and Tony Brown, tenor sax; Matt Augustine, baritone sax; Collin Bielser, bass; Kevin Proberts, guitar; Shane Carter, piano; and Taylor Miller, trombone.

> "The competition for membership into Honor Jazz is tougher every year," said Julie Groom, Colby High School Band Director.

> "These boys put a lot of extra practice into making the group. This is the second year for Josh Cox, Shane Carter and Taylor Miller," she continued

> The Honor Jazz Group will perform at Hays High School on Saturday, Nov. 2, at 4 p.m. in conjunction with the KMEA Northwest Middle School Honor Band and Honor Choir.

The concert is open to the public. Admission is $1.
