Rotary names Carter as 'Student of the Month'

Club News

The Colby Rotary Club met on March 11, with president Les Brown presiding. Guest's were Doug Ketchum, and Jim Wallen. Jim has submitted an application and will soon be inducted into the club.

Kirk Nelson introduced the Rotary Student of the Month, Nathan Carter. Nathan attends Colby High School, he is the son of Loyal and Sue Carter. He has been involved in cross country track, service club, and FCA. Nathan's community activities include 4-H, Knights of Columbus, Catholic Youth Organization and many other activities with in the church. Nathan plans to attend two years at Colby Community College, and the move on to a four year college.

Les asked club members if they have been to the ball diamonds to see the overhead protection devices on fields four and two. The overhead protect is to help with keeping foul balls from injuring people watching games. They will be working on the bleachers for the Legion Field next.

Nancy LePell helped in making certificates of achievement presented to Paul Steele, George Wiens, and Bill Biel for all the hard work on the soup supper. The Rotary Club appreciated all that help in making this fund raiser work.

Les said that he would be presenting George Wiens with his third degree Paul Harris Pin. The Hunger Plus Cruise Raffle tickets are still available said Rotarian Blake Arnbarger, the deadline for tickets is April 1.

Polio Plus Campaign is getting closer to the end and we have not quite made the pledge of $6,000.00. The club has never not made a goal set for a fund raiser and hopes to get the money to make this one.

Some upcoming events to put on the Rotarian calendar are District Conference held in Abilene on May 1-2, Colby Community College Endowment Auction on March 29, the club has a K-U Basketball package donated for this event. The Centennial Celebration is coming up if you have suggestion for Cal Mahin and Don Kready, they are committee chairs for this event. Les has asked for a volunteer to chair the Highway Clean-up project this year. That's right—highway clean-up month is April. The club is asked to do this at least three times a year.

Boy Scout troop 141 was the program, the Colby Rotary Club has sponsored the troop for several years. The troop leader told how scouts get their awards and badges. Several of the boys talked about experiences of cold weather sleep outs the troop has done to earn points. The boys had a lot of experiences that help to learn patience, how to take guidance in learning to survive with knowledge and tools at hand.

Rexford residents start support group

Mike and Joy Meserve have started a program in their home for their son, Paul, who has autism. They would like to talk to those who are interested in working with children with autism or families who have a child with autism. They are using the Applied Behavioral Analysis program.

Alfred and Jean Hawkins made a trip to Salina Thursday so she could have her physical preceding back surgery, which is scheduled for April 5, at the Salina Regional Medical Center. If you wish to send her a card the address is 400 S. Sante Fe, Salina, Kan., 67401.

Zula Horinek

Jeanette Bencken is home after shoulder surgery in Denver. She will be receiving physical therapy.

Sandra Barnett plans to move to Rexford. She purchased Irma Hibbs house and will be near her mother, Hulda Wark, to help her out.

Vincent and Aaron Ornelas will be available to do yard work after school is out.

The Gould brothers have returned from Denver where they were hospitalized for several months. John Roy returned to his home. Doloras Dible has been helping him at his home.

Carroll Gould is living at Lantern Park so he can receive physical therapy. He would welcome visitors. Cleda Moeder visits him nearly every day.

The contractors are finished with the Horinek house. It looks so nice with the metal roof that matches the trim. We feel so very fortunate to be included in this project. They are working on Tracy King's house now.

Let us keep our comrades that are in harm's way with our prayers during this war in Iraq against their evil regime.

Fashion show set for Saturday

"Blooming Into Spring" will be the theme for a fashion show scheduled at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, April 6, at The Gateway meeting room in Oberlin, sponsored by The Dresser in Oberlin.

The Dresser is in its tenth year as a specialty store in Oberlin and is managed by Karen Metcalf and Judy Shirley with the assistance of Amanda Grafel, clerk, and volunteers. There are some 80 investors in the downtown business with Dianne Bremer, Diane Frickey, Pat Fringer, Lora Linn Leichliter, Cheryl Metcalf, Carol Shirley and Judy Ostmeyer serving on the board of directors.

The board is planning some fun things for intermission. Tickets are available at The Dresser or at the door. Each ticket includes a 20 percent discount on purchases from The Dresser. Proceeds will go to the Oberlin Tree Commission.
