The Colby Lady Eagle softball team won both ends of a double header over Ulysses in Colby on Tuesday, 6-3 and 4-3.

Whitney Adams was on the mound for Colby in both games and tallied the wins. In the first game, Adams pitched seven innings getting three strike-outs, two walks and one hit batter. She allowed three hits, three runs and one earned run.

Behind Adams, the Colby defense played hard as well.

"The defense played solid behind her (Adams) only having two errors and made some good catches in the field," said head coach Jack Elliott.

Offensively for the Eagles, Jen Wilson was 2-2, Jen Hutfles was 2-3, Becky Herl was 1-2, Savannah Rupp was 2-4, Shawna Cox was 1-3 and Adams was 1-4.

"I am very pleased with the entire team," Elliott said. "The bats are starting to heat-up and the defense is more solid."

In the second game, Adams allowed only four hits, three runs and two earned runs. She also had five strike-outs and allowed one walk. Again, behind Adams, the team committed only two errors.

As the teams were tied at the bottom of the sixth inning, Crystal Herschberger bunted the ball, allowing Colby to score on a four base error by Ulysses. The point put Colby up 4-3 with only one more inning of play. Neither team scored in the seventh for the Colby win.

Elliott also said Adams on the mound and Becky Herl in the catcher position are doing a super job.

Lady Trojans drop two at Pratt

The Colby Community College Lady Trojans traveled to Pratt on Thursday and were unable to bring back a win in the double header. In the first game, Pratt won 8-5, and 11-4 in the second.

Erin Wagner was the pitcher for Colby in the first game and was credited the loss. She gave up 12 hits, 8 runs and 5 earned runs in the six innings she pitches. She also threw two strike-outs and allowed no walks.

The Lady Trojans had 9 hits in the game, and Alisha Liess was the lead hitter. Liess was 2-3 and had 1 RBI.

In game two, Lindsey Kastanek was at the mound for Colby. She gave up 10 hits, 11 runs and 7 earned runs. She had 3 strike-outs and allowed 1 walk.

As a team, the ladies had 7 hits. Kindra Smith, Miranda Bloesser and Amber Lane were all 2-3. Bloesser was also credited 2 RBIs, while Lane had one.

Head coach Carl Adams said of the game, "We didn't play solid defense. We came out flat and played not to lose instead of playing to win. We scored enough runs to win both games but we couldn't shut them down from scoring runs."

The Lady Trojans are tied for second in the conference and are only two games out of first. They currently have a record of 22-13 for the year and have three weeks left to play until the regional tournament.

Atwood plans basketball league for junior and senior high students

Atwood Recreation Commission will be hosting a boys and girls junior high school and high school Summer League Basketball program. Entries for the program are due on April 30.

Mike Lankas will be the director for the Summer League program. Games will be played May 27 through July 1. Teams from all over the area are being encouraged to participate to make this program successful.

The basketball divisions will consist of each a boys and girls high school league and a boys and girls junior high league with the student's grade in the fall 2003 determining the age bracket.

Each division will have a bracket consisting of eight teams. Each team is encouraged to have eight players but any team or player that cannot get eight players should still submit applications. Best effort will be made to combine partial teams.

If a division does not have enough teams to make a competitive league, all money will be returned in plenty of time for the athletes to enroll in another summer program.

The girls will play on Mondays and Wednesdays with the boys on Tuesdays and Thursdays. There will be three games played each night at 6, 7, and 8 p.m. for both the junior high and high school grade divisions. All games will be played at the Atwood High School gymnasium and auditorium.

The cost is $45 per athlete, which includes a reversible, pullover, jersey tank. Players returning for the 2004 summer league will be given a discount if they use their 2003 jersey. For information contact Lankas at (785) 626-9313 or email Lankas at: lankaslabs@hotmail.com.

The ladies will return to action this weekend at the First Annual Allen Wolf Memorial Tournament. Game times for Saturday will be 11 a.m., 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. at the college field. Sunday they will play at noon, 2 p.m. and 4 p.m.

Sports Brief

American Legion baseball information meeting is Sunday at 2 p.m. at Midwest Energy Office.

Players and parents are encouraged to attend.
