Happenings

Life's Tapestries Program
If you are preserving your family's heritage, you are invited to come and learn safe ways to display and store your family's quilts and vintage garments.
Many factors affect how well your treasures will stand up to the test of time. A trunkful of wonderful textiles from the K-State Department of Apparel, Textiles, and Interior Design will be on display to help illustrate the storage and preservation of textiles.
This program will be presented by D'Ette Scholtz, Thomas County Extension Agent, and will be held Tuesday, April 22, at 10 a.m. at the Thomas County Office Complex Meeting Room.
Everyone is invited to attend.

Atwood Pancake Feed
The Atwood Rotarians are holding a pancake breakfast and benefit auction on Saturday, April 26, at the Rawlins County 4-H Building in Atwood. The pancake breakfast will be served from 7:30 to 11 a.m., with the auction being held at 9:30 a.m.

The proceeds will go toward school band uniforms for the Rawlins County School District, the Area Community Enrichment Foundation, and Polio Plus, a project of Rotary International to eradicate polio worldwide.
For more information and to see a list of auction items, visit www.decisionweather.com or www.atwoodkansas.com.

Bieker and Bashioum are united

The Garden of Love Wedding Chapel in Las Vegas was the setting for the double ring ceremony uniting Kimberly Ann Bashioum and Gerald Eugene Bieker in marriage on March 20, 2003 at 6 p.m.
The bride is employed as a Customer Service Representative for Midwest Energy, Inc. in Colby, while the groom is employed by the City of Colby as the Public Works Director.
The couple would like to express their thanks and appreciation to Matt and Jackie Norman of Colby, for sharing their special moment.
Also, a special and sincere "thank you" is send out to Debbie and Bill Mariman and Kathy and Francis Britton, all of Colby, for their support, friendship and special decorations.
They would also like to thank all of their family, friends and fellow employees for helping them celebrate a new life together.

Lots going on at Fairview Estates

Cheryl Stith, the head cook here at Fairview and Karen Hodson, attended the Food Show at Kearney, Neb., the first part of last week. One class they attended was a nutrition class on air-born diseases.
Pete Morrison had eye surgery on Thursday last week and will have the other eye done later this month.
Eileen Dible hosted the Rexford Social Hour Club here on Wednesday afternoon, April 2. Her daughter-in-law, Janette Dible and all the members were present. A few games of bingo were played after the business meeting and Deb Stepper won the hostess gift. Strawberry pie, coffee and tea were served for refreshments.
Angie Erickson and two little boys visited Don and Dorothy
