Trojan baseball makes up games

Trojan fans, as we drove to Pratt on Friday for a makeup of Wednesday's doubleheader, we were faced with the task of playing 14 games in eight days. Although I am thankful for all the rain, it does make it tough to play baseball.

Friday we faced a Beaver team that is much like ours. They have ability but many things have not gone their way. In game one we went into the bottom of the sixth with a 1-0 lead but we didn't leave the sixth with that lead. We ended up losing 6-1, a lopsided score for an otherwise tight game. Freshman left fielder Dan McClure led the offense going 2 for 3 with a run scored.

Game two saw freshman right as many innings of work to earn the victory. Sophomore closer Branden Shiers from McCook came in with two on in the bottom of the seventh to earn the save.

Freshman center fielder Joel Gould had a double and triple and sophomore Keith Wollis went 3 for 4 with a double and an RBI to guide us to victory. Freshman Brian Hassing added a home run for insurance in the top of the seventh.

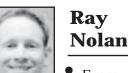

A split on the road is nothing to be ashamed of, although I was disappointed that the first game slipped away from us. We didn't have anytime to worry though as Garden City came into town Saturday looking for revenge due to our sweep of them earlier in the season.

Well, they got it. We lost game one 5-0 despite sophomore righty Brent Suing giving up just one earned run in six and a third innings of work. Sophomore Ian Mabb went 2 for 3, but offensively we could not get anything rolling. The wind killed balls that would have gone for extra base hits and their defense did a great job of stifling rallies.

Game two was closer, but with the same result. Joel Gould went 2 for 4 with an RBI, but we still lost 5-3. Heading into the final day of the weekend against third place Barton County, I felt confident because I knew that if we played error free ball, we could win. That is how I have felt all year and usually it is true.

We headed into the top of the seventh of game one down 7-3 with things looking grim. The Cougars answered our three run top of he second with six in the bottom of the inning. They added a run for good measure in the fourth and were looking to close out an easy victory. Well, not so fast.

With one out sophomore second baseman Chris Lebeda hit a double down the left field line. Gould followed with a single, Hassing with a walk, and Wollis then singled up hander Roy Allen strike out six in the middle to bring home Lebeda. After freshman catcher Kyle Sandusky hit a fielder's choice that scored Gould, sophomore Justin Dickson battled with two strikes and hit a single to left to extend the across the bag and his shoulder was inning and plate Hassing. Next, Ian Mabb singled to center to knot the score at seven. Finally, freshman outfielder Kyle Nordhues pushed home the go-ahead run in with a single to left.

able to score in both the eighth and the ninth. With two outs and a sprinkle coming down in the bottom of the ninth, the Cougars ended the game with a single to center to plate the winning run. As you might imagine folks, the game was emotional and draining. We went into game two determined to reverse the fortunes of game one and the theme of the weekend, but we just did not have it in us. We dropped the final game of the weekend 10-1. The disappointment of dropping four games this weekend is nothing compared to watching our sophomore right fielder Travis Glassman from Oakley suffer what looks to be a season ending injury. In the first game Saturday, after a base hit Travis was at first looking to steal second.

The pitcher picked to first and as Travis dove back his arm slipped pushed out of the socket. Thankfully it went back in, but Travis couldn't throw. He has not been able to lift his arm since.

Travis played an outstanding right field for us all season and has Unfortunately, nothing was done been a stable presence in an otherwise turbulent year. It is a real shame that his sophomore season
