Manor honors former Winona lady

There was excitement among the residents in Lantern Park Manor on Thursday, April 24, when they gathered in the dining room for cake and ice cream. The special occasion was to honor the resident of the month, Hazel Koons, a former resident of Winona. Members of Hazel's family who were there for the happy moments were her son and daughter-in-law, Jim and Kathy Koons of St. James, Mo., and her daughter and son-in-law, Velda and Dale Kelly from Topeka. Also present were her eldest grandchild, Sandee McChristy from Pittsburg and Kitt Kelly of Topeka. Sandee and Kitt are the adult children of Velda and Dale Kelly. Friends from Winona were Judy Gfeller, Bob and Virginia Arnberger, and Jean Lowe. Helen Gates, who is a resident of the manor, was also among the guests. ter evening for their families, Tina and Dustin Latham of Winona, Curt and Joleen Dirks, Landon, Shania, and Breanna of Oakley, and Kathy's mother, Geraldine Lorg from Scott City.

On April 24, a Colorado Children's Chorale entertained with a repertoire of vocal and dance selections at Colby High School. The Colby fourth graders joined them for a mass finale. The concert was sponsored by the Western Plains Arts Association. Members and guests from the area attending were Erma Latham, Beth Lamb, Doneta Gates, Joe and Norma

Darnall, and Jean Lowe.

On April 18, Pat and Art Koster and Lucille Bruns went to Hutchinson where they were house guests of Cameron and Jessica Koster. They visited with Dorothy Holland, a former Page City resident, who now lives in Hutchinson. Friday evening they enjoyed dinner with Kerri and Gary Tonns, Jordan and Will, Jessica Koster's family. Saturday, they attended a bridal shower for Mandy Unruh, bride elect of Joel Koster, at the home of Mary Kay Houghton in rural McPherson. They were Easter dinner guests of Herb and Patti Unruh in Lyons and also celebrated Mandy's birthday. They returned home Sunday evening.

Easter dinner guests of Roger and Connie Kough, Ashton and Chase of Colby were Mike and Sheryl Kough of Russell Springs, Lori and Stan Headings, Kamry and Riley of Marienthal, Linsey and Cole Mackley and Jace, Maxine and Kenneth Kirk from Winona, and Blair Kough from Oakley.

Making a difference

The United Methodist Church will be having a hamburger dinner on Sunday, from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Following the dinner will be a craft auction featuring many handmade items from the members of the church. This event is to raise money for the Mission Work Team to travel to Cheyenne, Wyo. to help with Habitat for Humanity. Above, Becky Donelan, Christi Gerstner and Valorie Donelan paint in the house that they worked on last year. For more information on the dinner or auction, contact the church office.
