There will be a community bridal shower for the bride-elect of Darris Lewallen, Merry Teeter, at the Winona United Methodist church Friday, June 20 at 7 p.m.

Sun Harvest County Fair was the theme for this year's V.B.S. held at the Winona United Methodist church June 2-6. Each day was filled with fun activities, music, recreation, crafts, and lessons. Children from ages 4 years to sixth grade attended. Approximately 37 children were present each day with 15 "farm helpers" assisting Linda Latham, coordinator. Fruits of the spirit were demonstrated each day on love, joy, peace, patience, and kindness. Linda appreciated the following people who helped to make this a rewarding week: Erma Latham, Pam Lewallen, Amy Lamb, Marilyn Ochs, Jean Spencer, Kalin Lewallen, Amber and Sherri Mackley, Cortney and Chelsey Moser, Christi Schertz, Nicole Walters, Rachael Smith, Sandi Margheim, Jill Hanson, Tammy Fulton, Candace Palmer, April Palmer, and Junior High boys and girls.

Chalea Kvasnicka was one year old on June 11. Her celebration was a big and happy one with grandparents, uncles, aunts, and cousins. Her parents and brother, Clint and Angie Kvasnicka and Cutter, entertained with supper and birthday cake and ice cream. Guests included Richard and Dianne Kvasnicka; Dawnelle Moore, Britany, Tyrel, and Taylor; Jolene Dirks, Landon, Shania, and Breanna; and Wyatt and Lindy Kvasnicka. Coming from Colby were Wayne and Jeanne Wilson, Tiffany, Connor, and Mandy; and Christy Kern and Mallory.

Sarah and Susanna Smith went to Wellington, KS where they spent several days visiting their uncle, John and Melanie Smith, Austin and Joshua. Sarah returned to Winona after taking Susanna to Lindsborg where she attended a flute camp at Bethany College. Suanna's mother, Ruth, went to Lindsborg to bring her back to Winona. Enroute, Sarah, accompanying her mother, stopped in Hays where she spent a few days with her aunt, Carolyn, and will register for the fall semester at Fort Hays State University.

A local farmer/teacher was in the service station resting on a stool while the proprietor was looking for a filter to fit the farm truck he was readying for hauling wheat. The optimism for a bumper crop is producing smiles on faces in this rural area. Bob and Virginia Arnberger spent several days in St. James, Mo. as guests of Jim and Kathy Koons who hosted the Arnberger family reunion. Accompanying them were Alexia Curtin from Atwood and Kayla Coker from McPherson.

Kris DuVall from Des Moines, IA, has been visiting her mother, Lucille Bruns.

Jean Lowe attended a Western Plains Arts board meeting in Colby Saturday. Members received packets to assist them in presenting the programs for the 2003-2004 season.

This writer just had a phone call from her daughter announcing news that granddaughter Mariah has returned to the U.S. after a yearlong sojourn in Europe and Asia.

This past week Aaron and Nichol Homburger had their own rattlesnake roundup. It seems several uninvited reptiles chose the Homburg yard for their habitation.
