Schroeder's attend wedding
Fulgence and Rita Schroeder and family attended the wedding rehearsal for Tonya Schroeder and Andrew Wong at Wichita's Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church July 24th. St. Paul's Newman Club members prepared and served a meal for 40 at the Newman Center.

Moses, Annie and Susan Wong entertained the F.J. Schroeder family with a traditional tea at noon on July 25th before the wedding. Honored guests were: Rose Winkler of Messillia, N.M.; Rosemary Hackett of San Antonio, Texas; Peter, Irene, Johannes, Anna and Martin Wurm of England; Irene Chan of Minnesota; Melissa Foo of California, formerly of Ipoh, Malaysia.

Luke, Rosalie and Rita Schroeder returned to Colby after a visit to Silver Dollar City and Branson, Mo. Larry, Cindy, Luke, Eli and Liam Hutfles and Carl Schroeder visited overnite with the Richard Hutfles family in Wichita before returning to Colby.

Bremenkamp reception Saturday

On Saturday, Aug. 9, there will be a reception for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bremenkamp, who were married on June 14 in Hays. The reception will be held at Hunter Hall and will begin at 7 p.m. CST. Thomas is a graduate of Brewster High School and also graduated from Fort Hays State this year. His wife is from Bangkok, Thailand. Her name is Sowanna, but I noticed that her mother-in-law calls her Ann, so I am sure she will feel right at home with Brewster hospitality.

Families talk about rock house, ancestors during visit

Frank and Bobbie Churchill, from Algerita, Texas and Ron and Karol Katt of Grainfield spent Saturday visiting with Beth Lamb, John and Tonya Lamb and Amy, Gus and Kelly and Jean Lowe. From Beth's place, the family formed a caravan and traveled across the prairie to the site where the Lamb grandparents staked a claim on a homestead in the early 1900s.

Stories, as told to them by their ancestors were compared as they observed the remainder of the rock house and viewed the spring from which they hauled water. Frank Churchill, Karol Katt and Jean Lowe are cousins and their grandparents were Gus and Ida Lamb who came to Logan County from Rooks County. Aside from all the acclamations declared by the Texans, Frank delighted in collecting some choice Kansas honey locust logs and antlers shed by Kansas deer to convert into lovely pens he designs and creates.

Mary and Donnie Wright called on Rosalie Bussen in Sharon Springs. Rosalie recently moved to Sharon Springs from Winona.

Levi Herschberger, from Olathe, is spending some of his summer vacation with his grandparents, Harley and Phyllis Herschberger. Levi is Bryan Herschberger's son.

Pat Haremza reported a nice turnout for her father, Norb Bussen's open-house birthday celebration at the country club in Oakley on Friday. She said he received many cards from those who did not attend.

Bill and Angie Sroufe and Lucille Bruns were Tuesday evening dinner guests of Jean Lowe.

Bill and Angie will be moving next week to Lake Charles, La. where Bill will enter the graduate program at a university there and Angie will work in the special education department at a Lake Charles school.

A cousin of Kenneth Smith's, Kenneth Veltman, and his wife, Jodi, stopped at the home of Kenneth and Louise for a visit enroute to their home in Salina from a vacation in Colorado. Pauline Smith joined the party for visiting. Pauline's late husband, Harold, was also a cousin of Kenneth Veltman.

Even though the school bells stopped ringing in the Page City School in 1958, former students haven't forgotten their alma mater. Alumni members are planning and looking forward to a reunion in Colby at the little theater in the community building.

On Friday evening, Aug. 29, graduates, former students and teachers, friends and patrons are invited to spend the evening visiting and reminiscing. There will be a covered dish meal at noon on Saturday, Aug. 30. As the old saying goes, "the more the merrier," so they are hoping for the merriest reunion ever.

Mr. Stricker from Wisconsin, if your land is in the Russell Springs vicinity, you will be happy to read that there have been a couple of nice showers in that area.

Phyllis and Harley Herschberger had one-half inch Sunday and on Tuesday they had an inch. Norma and Joe Darnall reported .75 at their place and Russell Springs city gauges read one and one half to two inches of rain Sunday.

Arizona woman attends local fair

Perk Barnett of Peoria, Ariz., visited Doris Jean Oliver last Wednesday and left Thursday morning for Denver.

The women attended the Thomas County Fair Wednesday evening. Mrs. Barnett has spent the summer visiting family in Oberlin, Rexford, and Phillipsburg.

The Koffee Klatch is growing. More people are attending and enjoying the fellowship with friends. Those who came last Friday were Eunice Sanford, Grace Cheney, Vesta Roth.

Doris Jean Oliver, Sandra Barnett, Hulda Wark, Deb Stepper, Karen Hodson, Eileen Dible and Lula Thieler.

Colby. Cleda Moeder took her granddaughter, Collette, to Logan to visit Hazel Richardson in the Logan Manor. Collette is Greg Moeder's daughter.

He was a favorite of Hazel's when he was growing up in Rexford.

Patty Ann Casey of Wichita is visiting her parents, Lawrence and Zula Horinek.

On Monday the Barnswallows pinocle group had 14 present. On Thursday the "Come on Down" group had nine players.

This is a blessing for those of us who enjoy the game. We really invite any of you to join us.

There is always more fun in numbers. We play at the Red Barn Senior Center from 2 to 5 p.m. each week.

We had a nice surprise last Sunday when Jimmy McAfoos and family stopped in for a short visit.

They were en route to Colorado on vacation.

Jimmy is the youngest son of Gordon McAfoos and is Zula's nephew.

He is the grandson of the late Whittie and Bea McAfoos.

High Plains After 5 Club plans 'ABC's of Life' night

The High Plains After 5 Club will hold its monthly dinner party, "ABC's of Life," beginning at 7 p.m., Tuesday, Aug. 12, featuring a fashion show by The Dresser in Oberlin followed by Melanie Golightly, Lenexa, the guest speaker for the evening. The fashion show, Back-to-School will highlight the newest fashions to ready students for school with Karen Metcalf, owner and operator of The Dresser, the emcee.

Golightly, who is a former teacher and aerobics instructor will have a lifetime of love and learning in her presentation on "Making the Grade."

The dinner and the program is $8 and reservations must be made by Saturday. For those wanting to attend, call Lori Haberler, 462-6557 or e-mail her at lorihaberer@hotmail.com, Gail Eberle, 672-4729 or 687-2155. Nursery services will be provided by reservation only.

Persons wanting nursery services can call Janice Cates at 465-9139.

Parents get teenager needed help

DEAR ABBY: I had to write after reading the letter from "No Name, City or State," the 17-year-old boy who was scared because when he tries to break up with his girlfriend, she cuts herself.

Several years ago, my teenage daughter had a slumber party. "Lynn," one of my daughter's friends, was one of the guests. During the night, Lynn began cutting herself and tried to attack another girl with a broken mirror. My daughter woke me, and I called the sheriff's department. They came and took Lynn to a hospital.

We didn't see her for two years, but six months ago Lynn dropped by our home. She hugged us and started to cry. She said, "Thank you so much for caring enough to DO something. I see now that I was crying for help." Lynn is still in therapy and under treatment for depression.

Abby, that young man should not hesitate to do whatever needs to be done to get his girlfriend the help she needs.

— A MOM IN THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS

DEAR MOM: The young man has already taken a giant step in the right direction. He has defined the problem and asked an adult (me) what to do about it.

Your experience clearly illustrates the benefit of taking immediate action and getting a person who is a threat to herself and others into the medical system.

DEAR ABBY: This morning my husband of five years, "Frank," called me by his ex-wife's name. It made me furious because it's something he's done from time to time. I'm still fuming and have managed to avoid him all day.

Don't get me wrong. I'm cordial to Wife No. 1. I make every effort to cooperate with her because of the children involved — but being called by her name is like a slap in the face.

If I tell Frank, I know he'll say I'm overreacting. What do you think, Abby?

— WIFE NO. 2 IN TEXAS

DEAR WIFE NO. 2: Go to the stationery store and buy some "Hello, my name is ()" stickers. Plaster one on your shoulder and one on your nightie. That should get his attention and your message across without being heavy-handed.

DEAR ABBY: I have been seeing a gentleman I'll call Clint for about a month. We are both divorced, in our early 40s and live 10 minutes apart. Clint has two children. When Clint calls, I always make myself available — even if it's 11 p.m. or later. He usually spends the night with me, then leaves first thing in the morning. My problem is he never wants to take me out anywhere, like to dinner and a movie. If he doesn't come to my house, I'll go to his — and we always end up in bed.

Am I setting myself up for disappointment? Your thoughts, please.

— WANTING MORE IN BUFFALO

DEAR WANTING MORE: It depends on what you want from this relationship. You have described a bed partner, not a life partner. Tell Clint exactly how you feel about this arrangement. You'll know where this ship is heading by his reaction.

DEAR ABBY: My daughter has a 3-foot-deep swimming pool in her yard. My two granddaughters, ages 5 and 9, have been playing in it all summer with friends their ages.

I am deeply concerned because they are out there alone for hours. They are not supervised by an adult or competent teenager. I'm worried because I know a horrible accident can happen very quickly. Do you think I am being overly protective?

— DISTRESSED NANA IN NEBRASKA

DEAR DISTRESSED NANA: No, I do not. Even adults should not swim alone. If something were to "go wrong" with one of the children in the pool, someone who knows how to react in an emergency — or recognize that it IS an emergency — should be present in a supervisory capacity. To do otherwise is child endangerment.
