Death

Joshua Jean Brand
Joshua Jean Brand (Thyfault), son of Oliver and Angela Brand was stillborn Saturday, Sept. 20, 2003 at Evangelisches Hospital in Dusseldorf, Germany.

A private service will be held Monday, Sept. 29 at Frankenheim Chapel in Dusseldorf. Father Thomas Scanlon from Saint Joseph Catholic Church in Paris, France will be conducting the services.

Laurie Bieker of Colby is one of his aunts. He is survived by many other aunts and uncles, along with grandparents Jim and Marilyn Thyfault of Hays and Bernard and Josiane Brand, Paris.

Memorials are suggested to the church or organization of the donor's choice.

Happenings

Sunday Connection, an informal time for high school/community college students, will meet the second and fourth Sundays of the month at the Presbyterian Church, 515 West 4th, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. All-you-can-eat pizza for $2. Pop is free. Call 462-6342 for a ride.

Painting with palette knife workshop offered

The McCook Community College Art Department and the McCook Art Guild will host a "painting with palette knife workshop," beginning at 9:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m., Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 1 and 2. The workshop will be held at the Wrightstone Fine Arts Building on the college campus.

Rita Doyle Roberts of Monte Vista, Colo., will be the instructor. She has vast experiences in her art career which recently include being in the Top 200 of the "2001 Arts for the Parks Competition," organizers said.

She was also selected as the finalist in the Artist's Magazine annual art competition last year. Roberts is a former McCook, Neb. resident.

Cost of the workshop is $57 and registrations can be sent to Don Dernovich at McCook College, 1205 E. 3rd, McCook, Neb., 69001 or Norma Stevens, 1515 Norris Ave., McCook, Neb. 69001. Make checks payable to McCook Community College.

The course provides for one hour of college credit. After registering, participants will receive a list of supplies.

Musical tribute to Sinatra planned at Colby High School

The Nebraska Theatre Caravan will present "My Way," a musical tribute to Frank Sinatra at the Colby High School Auditorium on Oct. 5 at 3 p.m. (CDT).

"These seasoned performers will bring a delightful salute to Ol' Blue Eyes-the one and only Frank Sinatra, as they bring the essence of the man through the music he sang in a glorious musical revue," said a spokesperson with the Western Plains Arts Association.

With a cast of two men and two women, the Caravan is sure to make this performance one of the most memorable experiences ever.

Featuring 56 songs recorded by Sinatra, the musical is guaranteed to make you swoon and sway all over again with such favorites like All of Me, I Get a Kick Out of You, I'll Be Seeing You and Witchcraft.

"Currently playing to sell-out crowds across the nation, communities will also be swept away into the golden age of the crooner's music," officials said.

"Audiences of all ages will be tapping their toes and humming those wonderful tunes long after the performance is over."

Admission at the door will be by Western Plains Arts Association season passes, or tickets for adults $15 and students $8.

"The performance is made possible by the Western Plains Arts Association. The presentation is supported by the Heartland Arts Fund, a program of Mid-America Arts Alliance funded by the National Endowment for the Arts with additional contributions from the Kansas Arts Commission, and foundations, corporations, and individuals throughout Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Texas," said Vicky Walkdschmidt, media correspondent. "We also have assistance from the Arts or Education Fund at the Thomas County Community Foundation, Inc.," she said.

Rec department offers scrapbooking

The Colby Recreation Department is offering scrapbooking for adults and children beginning in October, said Ryan Sturdy, director. There will be eight sessions for beginners ages 16 and up on Thursdays starting on Oct. 2 through Nov. 20.

The sessions are from 6 to 8:30 p.m. at the Colby Community Building at a cost of $40, which includes instruction, use of pens, cutters and more for the eight-week course.

Supplies, such as paper, protectors, stickers and other miscellaneous items will be available for purchase.

Kelly Dewey, the instructor, encourages those planning to attend to bring pictures with them.

In the scrapbooking for children course, the ages are from 8 to 15 and limited to the first 20 enrolled, he said.

The one-day session will be held from 1 to 5 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 11, also at the Colby Community Building. The cost is $10 and includes paper, protective cover, stickers and all other supplies for that day to complete a page. Snacks will be provided. Dewey is also the instructor for this course and asks that children bring pictures with them as well.
